Domestic Cleaning Companies

You are likely here because you need assistance cleaning your home but lack the time to do so yourself. Of course, you also enjoy returning home from work to a clean kitchen, living room, mopped floors, and vacuumed carpet. Our X-Act Care maids will do all necessary to maintain a high degree of cleanliness in your home.

Residential Cleaning Services

Regular apartment cleaning helps keep order in your life. The majority of apartments, especially the rooms, are carpeted. If your residence is not regularly vacuumed, allergens and dust will accumulate. A weekly cleaning will prevent allergies and respiratory issues.

Commercial Cleaning Services

Together with our environmental experts, X-Act Care LLC has created extensive cleaning processes for business buildings seeking to reopen following the COVID-19 outbreak. All of our Commercial Cleaning Services in DFW utilize hospital-grade, EPA-registered solutions according to the manufacturer's instructions, including mixing and dwell times. This is vital for maximizing the disinfection service's effectiveness.

WHAT KINDS OF CLEANING SERVICES DOES X-ACT CARE PROVIDE?

Standard Cleaning Service

A standard cleaning service is often scheduled once per week or every other week. If your home is exceptionally filthy or you haven't hired a cleaning service in a long time, you may want to choose our deep cleaning service. A thorough cleaning will include extra attention to detail and will focus on the most common yet unwelcome areas to eliminate more than just dust.

In general, the maintenance of your property will rely on a variety of criteria, including the number of occupants, the type of pets you have, and the frequency of your cleaning services. If you perform routine upkeep on your home in DFW, residential cleaning services will charge you less. More often implies savings. When you sign up for weekly cleaning services with X-Act Care Cleaning Services you can save up to 20%.

Deep Cleaning Service

Most people associate house cleaning with sweeping, mopping, vacuuming, and dusting. Residential cleaning services in DFW vary based on your specific requirements. Despite the fact that these are the majority of daily activities, there are occasions when your home demands a bit more. On occasion, a thorough clean is required for a healthy lifestyle. If you consider it, our deep cleaning adds additional value to your life: less dust from ceiling fans or a more thorough cleaning of your bathroom, relief from allergies, and prevention of mold growth in less frequently cleaned places.

Even while you don't have to clean your home from top to bottom every time you clean, you should make it a regular component of your cleaning routine. Every two to three months, you can request a Deep Clean.

Move Out Cleaning Service

You will require a move out cleaning regardless of whether you are returning your apartment keys to the landlord or selling your house. Restoring an apartment or house to the condition it was in when you rented it is a requirement in a regular lease. You may be punished for not leaving a house or flat clean and organized at the conclusion of your lease.

A move-out cleaning entails washing down cupboards, deep cleaning appliances and bathrooms, wiping windows, baseboards, and doors, and vacuuming and mopping floors thoroughly.
