Summary: On December 10, 2025, the Responsible for Equality And Liberty (R.E.A.L.) Coalition will hold a Human Rights Day event at the National Press Club in Washington, DC, to remember the creation of the December 10, 1948 creation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), and these values on the need for human rights, dignity, equality, compassion, and mercy around the world. The R.E.A.L coalition has been promoting human rights issues over the past 17 years since 2008, including previous Human Rights Day events, and leading human rights demonstrations and meetings across the USA. The theme of this year's Human Rights Day event will be: "A New Hope for Global Human Rights," with speakers and those providing statements focusing on things we can do for change. The event will have speakers on China Human Rights, Pakistan Religious Minority Human Rights, Hunger Issues, and Health Care and Human Rights, among other topics.

Confirmed Speakers will include:
-- China Human Rights: Dr. Sean (Xiaoxu) Lin, Executive Director for Consilium Institute and Senior Advisor for Global Service Center for Quitting CCP
-- Pakistan Human Rights: Dr. Nazir Bhatti, Pakistan Christian Congress
-- Othering, Health Care, and Human Rights: Shireen Qudosi (remotely)
-- Unpaid Caregiving and Human Rights: Carolyn Cook
-- Hunger and Human Rights: Karen Imm
-- A New Hope for Human Rights Change: Jeffrey Imm, Responsible for Equality And Liberty (R.E.A.L.)
