

“The Healing Tree” by Darryl Bollinger
Virtual Book Launch

Darryl is excited to announce he's planning for his Virtual Book Launch in late March, sponsored by Blue Ridge Books, 428 Hazelwood Avenue, Waynesville, NC. Call 829 456 6000 for store hours and thank them for sponsoring Darryl.

The Virtual Book Launch will be a fun and informative 45 minutes Zoom presentation where Darryl talks about his latest novel "The Healing Tree". He will also expand his discussion about protagonist Justin Reeve and explain, more fully, the inspiration for the story.

Attendees will have a chance to win free copies of "The Healing Tree" in ebook form, and a grand give away: a personally signed paperback copy.

But first, he wants your help to determine the optimal date and time. To that end, please print this notice, indicate your choices below and send to darryl@darrylbollinger.com

Please send by March 6!
