

Persuasion – Chapters 1-6A (300) Name: _____ Pd: _____ read thru chapter _____

1. What is Sir Walter obsessed with (there are 2 very good answers here)?
2. Where will Anne's family go live while their hall is being rented out?
3. What is Sir Walter's objection (his main one) to sailors (ha – it is funny)
4. What were Lady Russell's objections to Captain Wentworth (give me one very specific one)
5. What is one of the reasons that the reader may end up doubting that Mary is truly sick when Anne goes to visit her (give one specific).
6. Why does Anne's sister, Mary, not like sending her children to her husband's parents (their grandmamma...)

EC: What is a Baronetage?

1. How does Mary, Anne's youngest sister gain some importance?
2. Why does Anne's family have to rent out their hall?
3. Why does Anne have to leave the room when she hears about the sister of the Admiral who will be living in their hall?
4. When she is older, after her heartbreak with Wentworth, whose hand does Anne turn down?
5. Why does Anne not accompany her father to Bath when he first leaves the Hall (two good specific reasons here)
6. Why are the Musgroves (Anne's sisters in-laws) so thankful to Captain Wentworth?

EC: Who is the very best preserver of furniture in the world?

Persuasion – Chapters 1-6C (300) Name: _____ Pd: _____ read thru chapter _____

1. Who is Sir Walter's favorite daughter – if you can't tell me her name, tell me something about her
2. What does retrenchment mean or who must retrench?
3. Who or what did Sir Walter see that he could not believe how young they were (as they looked much older)
4. Who talked Anne out of marrying Captain Wentworth?
5. Who is it that does NOT want the family to move to Bath?
6. Who do the Musgroves blame for the ill-behavior of their son's children (and tell me one specific reason)

EC – define disinterested as used in this novel.
