Bachelor of Life Coaching, Minor in Faith-Based Counseling and Mentoring

HBI University
Course Duration: 4 years

Credit Hours: 135 (including minor)

Program Description

The Bachelor of Life Coaching, Minor in Faith-Based Counseling and Mentoring at HBIU University is designed for students who aspire to pursue careers as life coaches, mentors, and faith-based counselors. This program equips students with the skills to guide individuals toward personal growth, spiritual development, and emotional well-being. Through a combination of coaching techniques, mentoring strategies, and biblical counseling, students will learn to empower others to navigate life's challenges, discover their purpose, and create meaningful goals rooted in Christian values.

Students will gain expertise in personal development, motivational coaching, and counseling techniques, with an emphasis on faith-based mentoring and spiritual guidance. The curriculum is structured to help students develop both the practical coaching skills needed to support clients and the spiritual foundation required to offer biblical insights for personal transformation. The program prepares students to provide guidance on various life challenges, including addiction, grief, relationships, career transitions, and more. Through biblical teachings, mentoring practices, and professional coaching skills, students will be able to help individuals create positive, lasting changes in their lives.

The Minor in Faith-Based Counseling and Mentoring enhances the coaching process by integrating spiritual depth into the mentoring and counseling journey. This minor teaches students how to provide biblical support for life challenges, enabling them to offer healing, hope, and direction from a Christian perspective. Topics covered in the minor include faith-based approaches to dealing with addiction, overcoming grief, building healthy relationships, and navigating career transitions. The minor is ideal for students looking to deepen their coaching practice with a strong spiritual foundation, preparing them to serve individuals who seek holistic guidance in alignment with their faith.
