Franklin Park Course redesigned in 1991 to current 5K standard (years 1991-1995 not accurate)

Issues with setting up courses and a desire to have a single unified course to compare performances led to a meeting at Boston University in the summer of 1995 when the current course layouts were established. With several rare exceptions due to weather related conditions, the same courses have been used for high school, collegiate, and open competitions since 1995. Course under repair in 2012. Resume racing in 2014
