

The Pheasant and the Dove, Scolded to the Vole Worksheet

들쥐에게 혼난 꿩과 비둘기 학습지

Name: _____

Philosophical Questions to Reflect on Today's Folktale

1. The pheasant and the dove each boasted about how they were superior. Why is comparing ourselves with others often more harmful than helpful?
꿩과 비둘기는 서로가 더 낫다고 우쭐거렸어요. 왜 우리는 다른 사람과 자신을 비교할 때 오히려 해가 되는 경우가 많을까요?
2. A small field-mouse (vole) quietly admonished them and helped them see value in their differences. What does this tell us about humility and unexpected wisdom?
작고 조용한 들쥐가 두 새에게 말을 건네며 그들의 차이를 인정하도록 도왔어요. 이 장면이 '겸손'과 '뜻밖의 지혜'에 대해 우리에게 어떤 메시지를 줄까요?
3. If you were the pheasant or the dove, how would you act next time you felt tempted to boast? What can you do to show appreciation for others instead?
만약 여러분이 꿩이나 비둘기였다면, 다음 번에 자랑하고 싶은 마음이 생길 때 어떻게 행동하겠어요? 대신 다른 이를 존중하고 감사함을 표현하기 위해 무엇을 할 수 있을까요?

Quiz Time

1. What were the pheasant and the dove doing when they met?
 - Building a nest
 - Boasting about their feathers
 - Singing a song
 - Searching for food
2. Who intervened in the birds' argument?
 - A fox
 - A field-mouse (vole)
 - A rabbit
 - A farmer
3. What did the vole tell the birds?
 - "You must fight until someone wins."
 - "Your differences are weaknesses."
 - "Each of you has your own strengths; stop boasting."
 - "Leave the field immediately."
4. What changed after the vole spoke to them?
 - They flew away angrily.
 - They continued to argue.
 - They felt ashamed, apologized, and flew together.
 - They ignored the vole and stayed on the ground.
5. What main lesson does this folktale convey?
 - The biggest must always dominate.
 - Comparing and showing off leads to conflict.
 - Only beauty matters.
 - Silence is always best.

Good Work!

Check the answers below.

정답 확인하기:

2

2

3

3

2