Hi Tritons,

We hope you're staying safe and warm during this cold and icy week! Please take extra precautions while commuting, dress warmly, and look out for any campus updates regarding weather conditions. Your safety is our top priority!

Here's what's happening this week:

- Board Meetings Are Back!

We're excited to resume our Student Government Board Meetings! Each Thursday, from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM in Brier Hall 244. These meetings are open to all, and we encourage you to join us, share your thoughts, and learn more about what we're working on. Stay tuned for meeting details!

- Student Government at Olympia's Advocacy Day

Ken Park (Executive Officer for Clubs & Organizations), Katelyn Thomas (Executive Officer for Community Relations), Tiffany Mphepo (Executive Officer for Diversity), and Sal Kakar (Executive Officer for Technology) recently attended Advocacy Day in Olympia! They met with Representatives and Senators from Districts 1, 21, 32, and 44, advocating for Textbook Affordability, Housing Accessibility & Affordability, as well as Free Two-Year Programs. Check out our Instagram to see pictures! @asec_ig

- Black History Month

Mark your calendars Tritons! The Black History Month Committee is hosting a movie showing on February 13th in the Black Box Theatre! The Committee has chosen to show the movie "Move When the Spirit Says Move: The Legacy of Dorothy". This movie is about the empowering story of Dorothy Foreman Cotton. She was a courageous and influential civil rights leader who was the only woman on Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s executive staff. We will also be providing delicious snacks from a local Black owned restaurant! Join us at 2 pm for an insightful story paired with tasty snacks!

Thursday, February 13, Doors open at 1:30 PM, Film at 2:00 PM

Limited snacks provided.

- Triton Mascot Design Contest

The Design contest for the new Mascot design is now open. This is your chance to use your creativity and make a lasting impact in our school's ideology. Due date for submissions is February 27th by 11:59 PM. Submission forms and detailed instructions can be found here

More updates will be shared soon—stay safe, stay warm, and we hope to see you soon!

Best regards,

Sala Li
