SERMON OUTLINE:

How Jesus struggle helps in our struggle: round 3 – Matthew 3:13-4:11

Where does satan take Jesus to tempt him?

What does he show him?

2 observations reveal how crucial this 3rd temptation is:

#1:

#2:

What does the first half of the Father's baptism speech tell us about Jesus?

What does the second half of the speech tell us?

So what is happening on top of the mountain?

Were the kingdoms in the evil one's grip?

If so, who handed them over to him?

What is the inmost secret of the evil one's being?

What ways have you heard this same test become temptation speech in your head?

Why add the implicit 'only' to the text from Deuteronomy?

What is the inmost secret of Jesus heart?

This 3rd temptation touches a deep-rooted fear. What is it?

What happens at the moment Jesus dies on the cross?
