

All Potential No Productivity

Your Non-Negotiables Note Pad

Never settle for people who do not know your love language

Do not tolerate the lack of interest or intelligence when it comes to someone knowing you

Be only interested in those interested in you

Do not make the mistake of giving what you want just because you want it

Maintain an even temperament no matter the circumstance

Composure always must be your go-to

Always keep balance in your life

Remember anger does not have to mean you are unsafe

Look for the service side of you

Always serve humanity the way only you can

Remain secure in your position

Remember this to stand out step down

Do not relinquish yourself for anything

Do not fall back on your position if you believe in a thing

Those things you respect can never be discounted because the loss would be too great

Stand up and say what is necessary cause it matters

Do nothing with low energy effort

Put your all into a thing and expect a result

Pursue the life you want

Make it un-mistakable what you want
