Wellness Series

The Wellness Series is presenting a "Welcome to Mental Health Awareness Month!"

Schedule:

Wednesday, May 1st - Community Resource Lunch & Learn for students - mental health providers in the area - such as Wheaton/Warrenville Outreach, Metropolitan Family Services, and Genesis Clinical Services- will be stationed in the commons during all lunch hours for students to access information/resources on local community mental health supports

Thursday, May 2nd - Juniors will receive a presentation by Amal Jarad, Counselor and Professor at COD, on "Steps for Post-High School Success" during 7th hour

Friday, May 3rd - Wear Green! The color for Mental Health Awareness month is green, so we are encouraging students and staff to wear something green as our theme to finish out the week.

Juniors

Timeline	What to Expect
Remainder of the year/ Summer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Finish your semester with the best grades you can. Your GPA after Junior year is what you'll be applying to colleges with. Continue to use SchoolLinks Assessments for Career Exploration (SchoolLinks home>Activities>Assessments) Continue to use SchoolLinks "School Search" to build your college list (SchoolLinks home>Colleges>School Search) If able, set up school visits and sign up for official tours (if traveling is not an option, check out local schools to get a feel for different campuses and resources).
Fall	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Small group Senior Presentations going over post-secondary planning. SchoolLinks presentation for Seniors detailing logistics of transcripts, letters of rec, and other important ways to use this resource for college applications. Individual Senior conferences to discuss each student's personal post-secondary plans and answer specific questions.

Finals Schedule

Final Exams for Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors will be May 22-24. Students should talk with their teachers about upcoming exams and preparation as well as seek out any additional needed support during Resource. Any students who may need to take a Final outside of the set schedule must get pre-approval from the AP for Student Services: Leah Carter. Students can pick up a pre-planned absence form and other needed information from the Dean's office.
