Event Quality Committee

The Event Quality Committee aims to support event organisers to improve their skills by defining event quality and developing useful processes and tools. We are working with Leaders, Trainers and the Board. The Main focus of this mandate is to improve Event Reports and Feedback as well as creating new/more accessible trainings.

The Event Quality Committee aims to work towards continuous quality standardisation in ESTIEM events, while supporting and assessing event organisation processes, as well as providing and developing tools to assure high quality.

Work environment

We are working project-based, which means that as an Event Report Responsible, you'll be mostly working on Event Reports. You'll be in touch with leaders and organizers to ensure the collection of ERs and make sure they're handled properly. You'll be working alongside two other ER responsibles and you might help out with some of our other projects, like Event Organisation School, Training Sessions for Local Groups or LGX.

Event Report Responsible

Tasks of the ER Responsible will include the following:

- Attend our regular team meetings and bring your ideas
- Work closely with the team and the Leader
- Communicate and collaborate with leaders and event organizers
- Maintain proper knowledge management infrastructure

Preferred competencies:

- Willingness to devote time and work actively within the Event Quality Committee
- Decent communication and coordination skills
- Bringing in new ideas on how to improve ERs
- Experience in event organisation (not necessarily)

What will you learn in this position?

- Learn how to work in an international team
- Get familiar with Central ESTIEM
- Learn the different quality aspects of event organisation
- Learn how to measure and improve the quality of events
- Developing your communication skills
- Opportunities to collaborate with other active ESTIEMers and entities
- Having lots of fun while working together

Duration of the mandate

The mandate will last from December 2026 until July 2027.
