

District Parent and Family Engagement Policy Marshall County School System 2025-2026

In support of strengthening student academic achievement, Marshall County School System receives Title I, Part A funds and therefore must jointly develop with, agree on with, and distribute to parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement policy that contains information required by Section 1116(a)(2) of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). The policy establishes the district's expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement and describes how the district will implement a number of specific parent and family engagement activities.

The Marshall County School System agrees to implement the following requirements as outlined by Section 1116:

- The school district will put into operation programs, activities, and procedures for the engagement of parents and family members in all of its schools with Title I, Part A programs. These programs, activities, and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents and family members of participating children.
- Consistent with Section 1116, the school district will work with its schools to ensure that the required school-level parent and family engagement policies meet the requirements of Section 1116(b) of the ESSA, and each include as a component a school-parent compact consistent with Section 1116(d) of the ESEA.
- In carrying out the Title I, Part A parent and family engagement requirements to the extent practicable, the school district and its schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of families with limited English proficiency, limited literacy, disabilities, of migratory children, who are economically disadvantaged, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background, including providing information and school reports required under Section 1111 of the ESSA in an understandable and uniform format including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language families understand.
- If the district plan for Title I, Part A, developed under Section 1112 of the ESEA, is not satisfactory to the families of participating children, the school district will submit any parent comments with the plan when the school district submits the plan to the state department of education.

- The school district will be governed by the following definition of family engagement and expects that its Title I schools will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with this definition in Section 8101 of the ESSA:

Family engagement means the participation of families in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:

- (A) families play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;
- (B) families are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
- (C) families are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child; and
- (D) other activities are carried out, such as those described in Section 1116 of the ESEA.

JOINTLY DEVELOPED

The Marshall County School System will take the following actions to involve parents and family members in jointly developing its LEA plan under Section 1112, and the development of support and improvement plans under paragraphs (1) and (2) of Section 1111(d) of the ESEA:

The Marshall County School System will work with parents annually from each of the district Title I schoolwide schools to develop the district parent and family engagement plan and the district improvement plan. Each Title I school will have a representative to participate and provide suggestions and ideas to improve the district parent and family engagement policy. Families are welcome to submit comments and feedback regarding the plan at any time by submitting written comments to their child's school. These comments and feedback will be reviewed with the district meeting annually. The district parent and family engagement plan is posted on the district and school websites.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

The Marshall County School System will provide the following coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist and build capacity of all Title I, Part A schools in planning and implementing effective parent and family engagement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance, which may include meaningful consultation with employers, business leaders, and philanthropic organizations, or individuals with expertise in effectively engaging parents and family members in education:

The district federal programs supervisor will provide assistance and support to all Title I schools to ensure family engagement requirements are satisfied and that family engagement strategies and activities are being implemented. In addition to frequent communication and school visits, the district will hold meetings on a monthly or bi-monthly basis with the school leaders to review family engagement plans and activities.

ANNUAL EVALUATION

The Marshall County School System will take the following actions to conduct, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy in improving the academic quality of its Title I, Part A schools. The evaluation will include identifying barriers to greater participation by families in activities (with particular attention to families who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background). The evaluation will also include identifying the needs of parents and family members to assist with the learning of their children, including engaging with school personnel and teachers and strategies to support successful school and family interactions. The school district will use the findings of the evaluation about its parent and family engagement policy to design evidence-based strategies for more effective family engagement, and to revise, if necessary, its parent and family engagement policies.

The annual evaluation of the Marshall County School Parent and Family Engagement Plan will be conducted by the federal programs supervisor. A representative from each of the Title I schoolwide schools will provide suggestions and ideas to improve the district parent and family engagement plan and evaluation process.

RESERVATION OF FUNDS

The Marshall County School System will involve the parents and family members of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the 1 percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent and will ensure that not less than 90 percent of the 1 percent reserved goes directly to Title I schools.

Marshall County School System will use Title I allocated parental engagement funds to support schoolwide schools and their local-level family engagement programs and activities. Each school will host an annual Title I Meeting for families to provide suggestions on how these family engagement funds will be used at the school-level.

COORDINATION OF SERVICES

The Marshall County School System will coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement strategies, to the extent feasible and appropriate, with other relevant federal, state, and local laws and programs, such as: Head Start, voluntary Pre-K, Hopetown, etc. that encourage and support families in more fully participating in the education of their children by:

Marshall County School System will coordinate and integrate the district's family engagement programs with the preschool programs and other federal and state funded programs in the district. These programs will host meetings throughout the school year to work with families to ensure they are informed about available resources, programs, and provide training connected to student learning and progress.

BUILDING CAPACITY OF PARENTS AND FAMILY MEMBERS

The Marshall County School System will, with the assistance of its Title I schools, build families' capacity for strong family engagement by providing materials and training on such topics as literacy training and using technology (including education about the harms of copyright piracy) to help families work with their children to improve their children's academic achievement. Assistance will also be provided to parents and families in understanding the following topics:

- The challenging state academic standards;
- The state and local academic assessments including alternate assessments;
- The requirements of Title I, Part A;

- How to monitor their child's progress; and
- How to work with educators.

Marshall County Title I schoolwide schools will provide assistance to families regarding: state's academic content and student performance, state and local assessments, ways for parents to monitor their children's progress and work with educators to improve student performance, ways parents can participate in decisions relating to the education of their children, literacy training, etc.

BUILDING CAPACITY OF SCHOOL STAFF

The Marshall County School System will, with the assistance of its schools and families, educate its teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, and other school leaders, and other staff in the value and utility of contributions of families, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with families as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between families and schools by:

- Providing necessary literacy training for families from Title I, Part A funds, if the school district has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for that training.
- Maximize family engagement and participation in their children's education, arranging school meetings at a variety of times.
- Adopting and implementing model approaches to improving family engagement.

ADOPTION

This district parent and family engagement policy has been developed jointly and agreed on with parents and family members of children participating in Title I, Part A programs.

This policy was adopted by the Marshall County School System and will be in effect for the period of the 2023-2024 school year. The school district will distribute this policy to all families of participating Title I, Part A children.
