

臺北市私立新民國民小學

Taipei Xinmin Private Elementary School

Name: _____ Class: 602/603/604 Number: _____ Level: A1

Love, Amalia Week 2 Worksheet

Part A: Write the part of speech and the definition of the listed words.

Word	Part of Speech	Definition
nunca mas subtle knead upset taffy

Part B: Unscramble the word and write a sentence.

ftyfa
orplacein ncvoniec

Part C: Reading comprehension. Read the passage. Then circle the correct answer.

The Joys of Busan, Korea

Busan is a beautiful city in South Korea. It is famous for its clean beaches, busy markets, and friendly people. Many visitors enjoy walking along Haeundae Beach and watching the blue ocean. Others like to visit Jagalchi Fish Market to see fresh seafood. Busan is a great place to relax and have fun with family and friends.

There are many exciting places to visit in Busan. Gamcheon Culture Village has colorful houses, small streets, and beautiful art. People enjoy taking pictures and finding small cafés. Another popular place is Yongdusan Park, where visitors can climb Busan Tower to see the city from above. At night, the lights make Busan look even more beautiful.

Busan also has delicious food and exciting festivals. Many people enjoy eating Korean barbecue, hotteok, and fresh seafood. During the summer, Haeundae Beach is full of people swimming, playing games, and watching music performances. Whether visitors like nature, shopping, food, or culture, Busan has something special for everyone. Many people leave Busan with happy memories and hope to visit again someday.

1. What is Busan famous for?

- A. Snowy mountains and skiing
- B. Beaches, markets, and friendly people
- C. Large deserts
- D. Tall rain forests

2. Where can visitors see colorful houses and beautiful art?

- A. Busan Tower
- B. Jagalchi Fish Market
- C. Gamcheon Culture Village
- D. Haeundae Station

3. What can people do at Yongdusan Park?

- A. Go swimming
- B. Visit a zoo
- C. Climb Busan Tower to see the city
- D. Ride a train

4. Which food is mentioned in the passage?

- A. Pizza
- B. Tacos
- C. Korean barbecue and hotteok
- D. Hamburgers

5. Why do many people want to visit Busan again?

- A. They lose their luggage there.
- B. They have happy memories of the city.
- C. They want to study at school there.
- D. They only like the weather in winter.

Part D: Latin Roots. Fill in the blanks with the correct words. Change the tenses as necessary or pluralize the words.

import	ejected	contradict	territory	reject
--------	---------	------------	-----------	--------

- 1) Don't _____ your parents or teachers.
- 2) He _____ the essay because it was bad.
- 3) Do not invade bears _____.
- 4) He was _____ from the classroom because of his bad behavior.
- 5) Taiwan must _____ many raw materials.

Part D: Reading comprehension. Read the passage. Then answer the questions in complete sentences.

What to Like About Tokyo

Tokyo is the capital of Japan and one of the most exciting cities in the world. It has tall buildings, beautiful parks, and many interesting places to visit. People enjoy walking across the famous Shibuya Crossing, visiting old temples like Senso-ji, and shopping in busy areas such as Harajuku and Ginza. Tokyo is also very clean, and the trains help people travel quickly around the city.

There is something for everyone in Tokyo. Families can visit museums, aquariums, and Disneyland, while nature lovers can relax in parks or see cherry blossoms in the spring. Many visitors enjoy eating sushi, ramen, tempura, and other delicious Japanese foods. Tokyo is a city where modern life and traditional culture come together. Many people enjoy their time there and hope to return in the future.

1) Which place in Tokyo would you like to visit the most? Why?

2)What Japanese food would you like to try? Explain your answer.

3) Do you think you would enjoy living in Tokyo? Why or why not?