Capo 3rd Fret[Verse 1]
C Am F Dm
We carried you in our arms on Independence Day
A# F C
And now you'd throw us all aside and put us all away
Am F Dm
Oh, what dear daughter 'neath the sun could treat a father so?
A# F C
To wait upon him hand and foot and always tell him "No"

[Refrain]
E7 Am
Tears of rage, tears of grief
F C
Why must I always be the thief?
E7 Am
Come to me now, you know we're so alone
F C7 Fmaj7 C
And life is brief

[Verse 2]

C Am F Dm
It was all very painless When you went out to receive
A# F C
All that false instruction, which we never could believe
C Am F Dm
And now the heart is filled with gold as if it was a purse
A# F C
But, oh, what kind of love is this which goes from bad to worse?

[Refrain]

E7 Am
Tears of rage, tears of grief
F C
Why must I always be the thief?
E7 Am
Come to me now, you know we're so alone
F C7 Fmaj7 C
And life is brief

[Verse 3]

C Am F Dm
We pointed you the way to go and scratched your name in sand
A# F C
Though you just thought it was nothing more than a place for you to stand
C Am F Dm
I want you to know that while we watched you discovered no one would be true
A# F C
And I myself was among the ones who thought it was just a childish thing to do

[Refrain]

E7 Am
Tears of rage, tears of grief
F C
Why must I always be the thief?
E7 Am
Come to me now, you know we're so alone
F C7 Fmaj7 C
And life is brief
