

Inform: Lightning in greymouth last night
Last night in greymouth there was horrible lightning 10 people died animals were very scared a lot of people lost there family's lost's and lost's of animals were found that morning because they had ran away it was really horrible for greymouth that night

Entertain: In the jungle

No won had ever gone into the jungle before until today I went in and I tripped over a bear and I realized I should've gotten that plastic surgery sooner.

Persuade All cat's in new zealand have to wear leotards

Breaking news all cats have to wear leotards because are cats need to be different to the rest of the world and our cats should be different to other cats.