Example

I've chosen photo number... As you know, I like taking photos. I took this photo last summer. It was in July if I am not mistaken. Yes, definitely, it was the end of July. Then we were in Sochi.

In the foreground, you can see my brother and his friend. They look like twins, don't they? The weather is hot and sunny and the sea is so beautiful! They were very happy that day because they saw the sea for the first time. Actually, they were over the moon. At this particular moment they are looking at the sea and, perhaps, dreaming about something.

While watching the children I was thinking about the day I saw the sea for the first time. I was their age and I was greatly impressed as well. That's why I took this picture and keep it in my album.

As I know you're fond of children. Besides, you have always liked holidays at the sea. That's the reason why I decided to show the picture to you.

I hope you like my photo
