

Bennett McKinley

Background

I am a rising junior in Chemical Engineering. I joined CurtisLab in the summer of 2016 as an REU student interested in biomolecular technology. I am from Raleigh, North Carolina and attend North Carolina State University. With my free time, I like to play basketball and tennis.

Project

Tangential Flow Filtration purification of phytocyanin-like arabinogalactan proteins.

Contact Information

bennett.mckinley@curtislab.org