

How vocal sounds are created: <https://dood.al/pinktrombone/>

This interactive website will show you how your mouth, tongue, nasal cavity, and other factors change your sound and create various vowel sounds.

Music Notation Practice

- Music Theory.net- <https://www.musictheory.net/lessons>

Lessons for Note Name/Rests/Musical Notations

- Noteflight - <https://www.noteflight.com/>

You can sign up for a free account on this website and practice composing actual music. Experiment with different pitches, rhythms, instruments. You can also play back you composition to hear how it sounds, save you work, print it, create audio files, and more. You can learn more about how to get started with the following videos:

Introduction to Noteflight:

<https://support.noteflight.com/hc/en-us/articles/360021742972-Introduction-to-Noteflight-video->

Creating your first score:

<https://support.noteflight.com/hc/en-us/articles/360021511631-Creating-Your-First-Score-video->

Digital Audio Workstation (Music Studio)

- Soundtrap- Soundtrap Sign Up

This is a music studio that will allow you to create your own music using loops, creating beats, and other musical ideas. Mr. Tolle will be putting up videos on how to create different styles of musical things each week.

Video on how to sign up and get logged in- Soundtrap Sign Up and Log In Video

Games / Music Exploration

- Incredibox - <https://www.incredibox.com/>

This platform is a fun way to mix different sounds, beats, and vocals. You can experiment with how different sounds interact, what does or doesn't sound good, and you can create some instant music.

Videos and Activities

- Peter and the Wolf - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kvngLG3e_hg

Composed by Russian composer Sergei Prokofiev, this symphonic children's tale tells the story of a boy, Peter, and other animal characters in a quest to overcome a wolf. The music was composed without words, but each character is represented by a different instrument in the orchestra. As you watch the short movie, try to determine which instruments belong to which characters. Further, how is the emotion or drama of the story communicated by the music alone?