Even as a child, when Hannah G. Solomon looked at Chicago, the city where she was born, she saw unfairness all around her. Many people were poor and living in terrible conditions. Immigrants from other countries struggled to survive in their new home. Hannah G. Solomon Dared to Make a Difference. At a time when women had very little voice, she joined the fight to improve the lives of others, founding the National Council of Jewish Women—the first organization to unite Jewish women around the country. She fought to make life better for others, especially women and children...in Chicago and beyond.

About the Author

A former high school teacher and college librarian, Bonnie Lindauer loves reading children's books as much as she loves her favorite vanilla ice cream. She plays piano and cello, and loves to sing. She lives near San Francisco with her husband and senior rescue dog, Archie. This is her first children's book.

About the Illustrator

Sofia Moore is a Ukrainian-American artist and illustrator based in Las Vegas, Nevada. She grew up reading folktales in her grandmother's house and drawing princesses on the back of textbooks. She loves painting traditionally, but also layers textures both on paper and digitally.
