Title I School and Family Compact

Title I is a federally funded program designed to supplement student instruction in English language arts and/or mathematics. A key factor in student success is a strong partnership between school and home. This compact is a voluntary agreement that outlines the expectations and responsibilities of all involved - school, family, and students. The School and Family Compact is developed jointly with parents served under Title 1, Part A and outlines the shared responsibilities of parents, school staff, and students for improving student achievement.

School Responsibilities

1. Provide high quality curriculum and instruction designed to meet individual needs
2. Hold parent-teacher conferences as part of the communication process a minimum of 2x per year
3. Provide reports to parents on their child's progress
4. Provide parents reasonable opportunities to volunteer, participate and observe in their child's classroom
5. Provide parents reasonable access to staff
6. Ensure two-way communication in a language the family can understand
7. Foster effective communication among staff, family, and students
8. Provide related school information, to the extent practicable, in a language family members can understand
9. Provide a safe, supportive and effective learning environment
Provide parents with access to the Title I program and opportunities to enhance their students' education

Family Responsibilities

1. Ensure that a student attends school regularly
2. Establish a home environment that supports education
3. Attend family events and conferences, if possible

Student Responsibilities

1. Attend school regularly and am prepared to be an active learner
2. Be respectful of myself, my peers, and teachers
3. Follow school rules and accept responsibility for my own actions
