

SEEING RED

Purpose

Before diving into the next lesson, you'll preview some images and use them to predict what you might learn. Using your image-analysis skills will help you begin to understand this lesson's content and allow you to work on improving this important skill.

Process

1. Take a few minutes to examine the images below, or see the larger images here.

Chinese Propaganda Poster, By Chinese Communist Party, CC BY-SA 4.0

Eliminate the four old - establish the four new, public domain.

Don't cause delay for peasants, fair use.

SEEING RED

2. What do you think these images are about?

3. What are some things that all three images have in common?

4. If you can, share your notes on the images with a partner or small group and come up with a narrative that connects all the images. You can rearrange or reorder the images to craft your narrative.
5. Write a one-paragraph narrative.
