

“The bullet-points are straight out of scripture - the wording matches the specified translation noted at the end of each bullet point. Please check the attached Bible verses to verify that the things about the Lord in the bullet-points are actually Biblical, and to make sure that there haven't been any typos on the tags saying where in the Bible I found that it said something very closely along those lines. One little typo on there can accidentally put one in the wrong book of the Bible even (for example 1 John as opposed to John, or 1 Samuel as opposed to 2 Samuel). As a list that started off as a facebook note made in random snippets during the college school year by an undergrad student, it's a work in progress. . . . and this is what I did when I couldn't sleep at night during the Spring 2013 semester and part of the summer. . . I still have to add in all the stuff from the book of Job, and the verses on healing, and . . . the list goes on . . . I got busy and haven't made time to make adjustments on the list in several months - Sorry!. The things about God are mostly grouped by similar content categories, and once you get past the first page and a half it gets less repetitive, for the most part.”-Katie S.
