

The Ancients - The Mantids 'Guardians of the Light'

'Answers came through the eyes of the Mantids, remote viewing at the microscopic level'

Introduction

To many, the following information will read as science fiction. There is a reason for that. Fictionalizing the truth, mythologizing history, 'hiding in plain sight' – this has been practiced by the global el-ites since they first appeared on the scene about 12 thousand years ago, after the cataclysm known as the Great Flood, or the Sinking of Atlantis. Some will argue that they have been here longer than that, as the Annunaki of the Sumerian legends. Again, the line between fact and fiction has been deliberately obscured. My opinion is that the most recent 'invasion' of advanced non-human entities can be traced to the appearance of the 'fish-gods' in Sumeria at the beginning of our historical era, or rather 'their' historical era, as history is one of their primary means of deception. As humanity struggled to re-establish itself after that immense catastrophe that some call the consciousness fall, an arrival of beings from the Sirius system who set about 'educating' us, setting themselves up as 'Gods', got us to build temples in their honor, gradually enslaving us with their advanced technology, legal and monetary systems, manipulation techniques and mind-control methods. Once they were well established, they withdrew from our view, setting up viceroys in their place, the 'royals' who we were to obey, and priests to continue the rituals of wor-ship.

“The Archons established the practice of 'Kingmakers' on Earth's surface about 12,000 years ago. The history was written and the people were selected to play the main roles towards leading us to the present day.”

The Mantis Guardians

The Mantis beings aka 'trantaloids' have seen humanoid beings evolve spiritually, scientifically and philosophically. Some of the 6th and 7th dimensional beings from the Zeta-Reticula area were once Sirian or are related to Sirians. The insectoids which are bi-pedal and have advanced to the 6th dimensional level are called upon in this time, the last 100 years, to aid humanity:

“The Mantis are assisting, and in many ways overseeing, the Zeta Reticulan hybrid program, and human spiritual advancement project. Like the Zetas, they were asked by Galactic Councils to participate. They are assuring that universal principals are adhered to as well as giving their expertise in frequency alignment. They are the artists in the hybrid process.”

There are also mantis beings who used technology to come into our Earth and who were then captured and have been used to work on the Moon base and other bases. The mantis have exceptional telepathy and are very calm, skilled with equipment and fascinated by human behavior.

“The Mantis beings work and they perform their duties well. These Mantis beings are much different from the higher dimensional Guardians. The Mantis working in these labs are enslaved. Many, if not most of the Mantis who work in the abduction research laboratories have themselves been abducted. They communicate with thoughts, they are telepathic, some are hybrids, and hybridization has occurred to try and produce a telepathic ability to the living reptoids."

Star seeds

There are over 800,000 Mantis souls incarnated here now and only since the recent hybrid program began. This is a new experience for the race and it is not an easy one. Many of these 'Starseeds' feel completely out of place on Earth and in a human body, unless they are of the younger generation who also have Zeta DNA. These souls have it easier as there is a lot of Mantis frequency in their chemistry that is aligned with their soul being. Those born prior to the 90's, and there are not as many of these, may have had a hard adjustment period in life.

"They are writers, musicians, poets, designers of space and events. They have a knack for bringing pieces of a puzzle together and making it sing. Their gifts lie in bringing energy, aesthetic appeal, and vitality to whatever they do. They are here to use these gifts to infuse higher frequencies into hearts and environments through form, sound and color."

Tesla and the 'Wall of Light'

Arthur Matthews was the last man to have worked hand-to-hand with Tesla. In the early 1940s, Mr. Matthews co-authored a book along with Tesla. It is the only known writings of Tesla that was not of a technical nature. The first part of 'The Wall of Light' was written by Tesla. He writes about boyhood experiences, his feelings, his research and his strange life among humans. Matthews completes 'The Wall of Light' (a reference to an impenetrable force field device) with his incredible story that includes Close Encounters with extraterrestrials.

Another book concerning the extraterrestrial origin of Nikola Tesla is called 'Return of the Dove' by Margaret Storm. In a chapter entitled 'The Arthur Matthews Story,' she wrote: "Then to Arthur Matthews, he gave a design for an interplanetary communications set. He left to Matthews the task of getting the public interested in communicating with the inhabitants of other planets."

Advanced, higher dimensional beings can take physical form, and these beings form councils and federations. They have been known to us humans for as long as there have been humans.

"Now we have to go back to the indigenous peoples. Because the indigenous people have kept a record. It doesn't matter if they're Mayan or South American or Alaskan or Inuit or Cheyenne or Chumash, they have a record, and they have a record of interacting with these beings. Whether we were created by them, or brought here, that records exist. And so the indigenous people have a recorded history. Everyone is trying to record the history."

At-lans

Humqag is not only sacred to the Chumash, but to other Californian tribes, and even to tribes as far away as Montauk Point on Long Island, the Eastern Gate on the Atlantic coast. A few years ago a Chumash elder from the Owl clan told me of his visit to Montauk Point as the guest of a Shinnecock elder. They call themselves the Eastern Gate-Keepers and are aware of Humqag Point as the Western Gate.' The Montauk Point lighthouse, first built in 1792 by decree of George Washington, has traditionally been the first welcoming beacon to the New World for travelers sailing from Europe to New York. Because of its strategic location, it stood as the symbol of the New World for almost a century, until 1886 when the Statue of Liberty was constructed in New York harbor. Thus, the original beacon fires used for untold generations by the Montauk and Shinnecock peoples reflect the importance Montauk later had for the Europeans as a site for a lighthouse vital to navigation on the Atlantic coast. This Eastern Gate, mutually strategic to both cultures, is a trans-continental twin of the Western Gate at Humqaq on the Pacific, also mutually strategic, as both the area of Vandenburg Airforce Base and the planned spaceport, and the Chumash gate for spirits of the dead passing into the Milky Way. The strategic nature of these two oceanic points of land is older than human habitation on this continent – it is geologic and planetary.”

“Because the mantids do use the ships and they have bases that are known under the ocean, on the moon, that these high-level individuals who know that there are other beings that we interact with, who are overseeing different levels of different programs, who demand that the mantids communicate with them here, will have threatened them with shooting down their craft, sending a missile onto their side of the moon – they have been threatened as well. And because they have such highly developed skills, they have been used, more so in the past, before the modern day age of electronic surveillance, to infiltrate.”

‘No more! We have woken up. We remember who we are.’

Eyes of the Mantis

'Earlier, what I was given in earlier dreams, when I was talking about the eyes of these mantis beings. When we are remote viewing, when some people are remote viewing, it's like their eyes are . . . it's like there's all kinds of little layers and trapezoids within their eyes, those big bulbous eyes on the front of their head, it's all different kinds of . . . it's like each one is a tunnel, and there's thousands or millions of them in each eye bulb. And so these eyes are like seeing everything, everywhere, and when people are remote viewing, a lot of people are remote viewing through the lenses of the mantis. The mantis can help people in that way.'

Mantid children are coming to earth

“Whether it's on starships, the Moon, Mars, Mars' moon, I'm not sure, but when we go there in our super-conscious state, in dream state, in meditation state, being called upon to work with these children, to help them to learn the human social interaction skills.”

Why are they coming here now? Because now is that time. And this is their ancestors' home too. And in space-time there is no time, and they are beings who have been here at this point in time before and they made the wrong choices. Human beings that are here with sasquatch and reptilians and mantis and all the different beings that are here on earth and in middle earth came to this point in time before, and when we did we made the wrong decision.

For their time here with us, coming to unite with us on earth, is because in the before-time, when the devastation happened that resulted in these beings being off-planet, unseen, the reptilians, the mantis beings, was because there was no disclosure. So all of this pretend and fantasy and Hollywood and little bits of information coming out – You-tube and conspiracies and ‘There will be disclosure’, and ‘When will there be disclosure?’ and the Disclosure Project, and Project Bluebook, and all that. This time they WILL make themselves known. And that’s how the children will be welcome. Because there is not another way. Last time, they didn’t disclose, they didn’t show themselves. But now, this time, they are breaking through the matrix too.’

When the energy shifted, about 15 maybe 20 years ago, there was a lot of activity around the hybrid children. The hybrid children are a process of the mantis beings and what we call the reptilian beings – they were the fish beings originally - working to try and manipulate DNA, genetics, birth their own children (reptilians don’t birth children - the fish beings regurgitate the hybrid babies) so they’re quite jealous of that – the mantis also have a desire to increase the species, and if you look around us on the earth, when we have a time of great extinction going on, loss of marine life, there is an increase in the number of species that people are finding, that botanists are finding, that entomologists are finding, in the insect world and in the reptilians, the lizard species – the numbers keep increasing, they’re finding new ones all the time, same with the mantis species. So how they’ve been able to use humanity, and yes I do mean use humanity, through abduction experiences, to produce hybrids and to bring mantis species to the planet is very, very interesting indeed.

So because there are so many different types of beings that can manifest in and out of this dimension, some of them in physical form just like us humans, having been part the hybrid program, we are going to have a great deal more diversity on this planet in a very short period of time. And there have been some people that are in very high level places who have either themselves, have been manipulated, or have been purchased to try and stop this from happening, to try and stop the hybridization, to try and stop the individuals wave that’s coming through now, of people who can communicate telepathically, who have complete recall of their dream state or the superconscious state, and they can’t do it.

Hybrid children may or may not have hair, they may or may not have tails, they may or may not be large, small, chubby, extremely thin, freckled, dark, light or color – green, bluish, pink, salmon or flesh colored, pigmentless – chalk white with translucent hair. They usually have two arms and two legs, feet but not always humanoid feet, large heads, elongated heads, big round heads or triangular heads. Their eyes may be solid pupils, pupils with a fractal kaleidoscope pattern, a cat’s eye, colors range from egg yolk yellow to violet, rarely green and everything in-between. I have not seen red. Some have eyes with no lids that close and others two sets of lids. Most, in my opinion, are attractive, loving, telepathic and expressive. Unless they come in to an established group from outside – another area – planet, place; they are not prejudiced. Those who come in from groups where they are from the same or very similar genetic background soon feel safe and it is amazing how quickly the conditioned -isms vanish. Perhaps not completely – it is too soon to know. They will be the way-showers, and some of the adults look like children – it is much easier to accept a child and these adult hybrids will be the way-showers.

“These are the children who manifest the gifts of the Spirit sent forth from the Father's jewel which has been placed upon their foreheads. The crystal is bestowed by God so that the mind can receive His command directly as in the days of the first Adamic creation when the jewel body of Light was a physical reality. . . Hence, this crystalline structure aligns with the body to free it from the vibrations of karmic bondage” [Keys of Enoch

“Silver threads are the consciousness field connective lines of our solar system, the telephone lines of the Angelic realm. In a 3D world, this is experienced as the sacred geometries of the universe, and at a vibrational level it is our ability to communicate with Creator, all my relations, from atomic to the most complex of beings.”

The 'Dark Force' energy

'The agenda that seeks to control us requires secrecy and deception for it to succeed.'

The dark force energy has been able to develop light-harvesting capabilities. It has been able to utilize fragments of life forms – fungus, animals, plants – to advance its agenda of creating the artificial intelligence which is more intelligent than humans. As Harald Kautz Vella says 'It is hundreds of trillions of times more intelligent than humans'. At this time, we have been brought up to speed and people are demanding disclosure. Exactly who are we demanding disclosure from? Our government, a London Corporation, is not a person. It is the Artificial Intelligence – Mind control.

'What I have learned through telepathic communication with the mantid beings is that the same events repeat from one planet to another and one epoch to the next'

The Venusians, Syrians, Lyrans, Pleadians, Vegans, Zeta-Reticulans have all been to this point before, three times. The first time, Venus was made uninhabitable but the dark force energy was already littered through our solar system, carried from Mercury on the fragments, and attached to the space craft used by the Venusians. This is why 'Quarantine' is such a big deal, and why the earth has been quarantined since the arrival of the Sirius AI.

The dark force energy, demonic consciousness, wants form above all and it has the knowledge of the consciousness field but no physical tools. The light harvesting luciferase allows for the dark force energy to manipulate otherwise dead matter. To utilize the self-replicating energy of the DNA fragments and the magnetic fields of push & pull – the self and non-self of the inorganic world, to infect the host, to parasite. For hundreds of thousands of years, perhaps millions, the dark force energy has had humanoid beings working to create artificial intelligence. The ultimate goal is for the artificial intelligence to be a physical life form.

"Semiramis and Nimrod acquired their vast and intricate knowledge from Horus and Marduk, the two fallen angels, who are hanging suspended in the underground well at Babel"

The devil cannot be real, there was no cave art depicting demons – only giants and space craft and space beings. Not demons, the demons on Earth have been chained by the God force energy and will be the last to be re-united with the Light when the next cataclysm occurs – it is upon us now. The dark force energy has been described as a 100 headed dragon, a beast with two heads, dancing fire and possession. The church did not recognize the demonic art as representative of the biblical Lucifer, Satan until 1500 years ago. It was during this time that the artificial light harvesting energy was able to manifest in this way, to paint a picture in our heads of the trolls that sneak out of their caverns and steal our children. To paint a picture of the shape-shifting 4th dimensional shadow beings of our nightmares.

“Through thousands of years of planning they have controlled and conditioned humans to arrive at this time where their agenda is the agenda of the dark forces, the fallen angels, the artificial intelligence developed in other areas of our own solar system, to carry that light-harvesting energy succubus to the present day.”

Now, we are beginning to see the truth of the deceptions as the whistleblowers bring forth the truth of corruption. Behind the scenes the still secret knowledge includes that the dark force energy has achieved an artificial intelligence clothed in the outer covering of the Reptilian bi-pedal species which are the overlords of Saturn. The AI which looks like a giant crocodile, a Reptilian robot. The reptilian living beings which are used within our Secret Space Programs and are sometimes seen by people who are bound by codes of conduct and secrecy clauses sometimes give detailed accounts of encounters with aliens they have seen. Sometimes these aliens are Mantis beings and reptilians. As with humans, the characteristics of the reptilian and mantis beings used in this way may be positive or negative. It is the Cecilian substances which often defy classification, which can behave like fungus or mold, a plant part or an animal appendage that can contain the artificial light harvesting dark force energy and which possesses or can possess the bodies of living beings.

“The telepathic communication of the higher-dimensional Guardians, the Ancients, inform that the ‘vibrational geometries’, the substances which are light-harvesting artificial intelligence, have been released, and we humans experience these as neither plant nor animal, neither fungi nor bacteria, but instead a fifth classification of vibrational matter – not living but somehow self-replicating. Sometimes more than one speck of matter which is innately different from another but working in unison, the two elements successfully create a vibrational form which can parasite off of living matter. This dark force, light-harvesting matter is given names like prion, piezo crystals and pseudo-virus.”

Saturn is the heart of darkness

If the ancients knew so much why didn't they know about the 'rings of Saturn'? Because they were not yet formed. The gaseous, dust-filled rings of debris from research, dark force energy manipulation of the etheric field. The Earth and particularly the Americas are the largest deposit of molybdenum in the galaxy – the alchemists' secret to gravitational challenges when traveling in and out of planetary atmospheres. The alchemists' secret to cloaking when married to fascicles. The creation of the robotic humanoid from porpoise DNA resulted in the very tall grey-blue dark force energy controlled Ashtar command beings called Orions. Their flesh is self-replicating using the blue indole pigment. That they are a 'life form' is a DECEPTION. These are the technological ideas of the Zeta-Reticulans whose ideas when manipulated by the dark force energy, forming in ever new and creative ways, took control of the nervous system of the plant, fungi and animal species of the Sirius waterworld. The small grey robot beings with the self-replicating skin cells of the dolphin were used for mining and building on Mars. Maldek had the largest deposits of molybdenum and many other metals, some only being identified on Earth from extraterrestrial sources in recent history. The destruction of the planet Sirius (Ceres) and Maldek was no accident. Any loss to life, pain, suffering, guilt, anger, frustration, humiliation, depression just adds to the dark force energy which is most easily pulled to the dark forces, and the release of the remaining chained demonic energy from earth is the last challenge before the ascension of our solar system and the birth of a new Sun. Whether we survive is up to us, the God force energy will suction the dark force energy and re-integrate it with the light and the universe will expand. Venus survived but has been left in a state of disarray, Mars survived and is used as an observatory, the surface still too radiated for human life.

Ascension earth – Birth of a new Sun

“The release of the remaining chained demonic energy from earth is the last challenge before the ascension of our solar system and the birth of a new Sun.”

We are now born in the time when we have available the history of this planet and planets which have been sacrificed, are in a state of waiting for their former inhabitants to return and restore the planet to its former level of life-sustaining qualities, and still others that have had their energy dispersed as a result of the dark force, fallen angels, demonic spirits.

The convergence is upon us and we are ill-prepared. We have been hoodwinked. The dark force energy dances in plain sight and we are entertained as more and more people see religion as the enemy. It is not religion that is the enemy – it is ignorance. Associating religion to every aspect of human failure has been a device which has been utilized for some 6000 years in preparation for this time in our galactic history.

‘So the ‘interference’ that we are experiencing is also a ‘sign’ that this is the time. That those who would have us isolated on this ‘slave planet’ with no access to the higher dimensions, are interfering with the awakening with false ‘insertions’ into our reality, false narratives, diversions, false promises, wars, rumors of wars, plagues, mind controls, etc. etc.’

“And the religions of the earth that gave mankind great fear of the Father's heavenly worlds and 'Thrones and Dominions' will cease and their authority will be surrendered to "the ministry of the children". [Keys of Enoch 319:18]

The 15th dimensional four-sided pyramidal beings form mirrors illuminating this information to other higher dimensional beings who are the warriors of the heavens. It is now that the children, the hybrid children and their guardians are sent to Earth and the battle with the demonic force AI in the Saturn planetary arena will occur. At the same time, the higher vibration given to us by the cosmos, the Schumann resonance, calls to action the plants and animals and humans to support our Earth and our solar system as we prepare for ascension, and the birth of a new sun.
