

Thursday April 20th, 2017

Chesapeake Regional Association of Student Councils

CRASC

2017 STUDENT MEMBER ON THE BOARD ELECTION RESULTS

RELEASE

April 20, 2017

The Chesapeake Regional Association of Student Councils (CRASC) have elected Lusia Cole, a current junior at Chesapeake Science Point to be the 2017-2018 Student Member on the Board of Education for Anne Arundel County Public Schools (SMOB). This student will serve a one year term beginning on July 1st. The student's name will be forwarded to the Governor for appointment. Anne Arundel's student member is the only one in the nation on a local Board of Education with full voting rights.

CRASC is a representative organization of students in Anne Arundel County. We act as a forum where students can discuss student related issues, participate in leadership development activities, and collaborate with other students from across the county.

-The CRASC Communications Team