District Snapshot

Recommendations per Standards of Service

- All elementary school students should be enrolled in art and general music, each for 40 minutes per week throughout the entire school year.
- Elementary school extended arts courses include dance, media arts, and theatre (once a week for 40 minutes), and band, choir, and orchestra (twice a week for 40 minutes each).
- Elementary school courses should prepare students for middle school programs. Middle school courses should prepare students for high school programs.
- Secondary school students should be offered art, band, and choir.
- Band, choir, and orchestra should be yearlong courses in middle and high schools.
- Art, dance, general music, and theatre can be 9-week rotations or yearlong courses in middle school.
- 10% participation is the threshold for the stability of band, choir, and orchestra programs and 7% for guitar and keyboard programs.
- Fine arts is a pathway with 3 credits in one arts discipline and can result in the fine arts diploma seal with the following requirements:
    - Pathway completion (three credits in the same arts discipline) plus a fourth arts credit.
    - 20 hours of arts related community service.
    - Capstone project.

Positives

- Increased participation in all arts content areas from FY19 to FY23
- Art programs in all schools and music programs in all schools, except two
- More music programs than other areas of the country (San Diego, Houston, Nashville, Aiken, SC)
- Increased level of performance

Areas of Growth

- Rigorous progression in each content area from elementary through high school
- Recruitment and retention of students from year to year through scheduling practices
- Quality of programs across the district
- Equitable performance facilities across the district
- Offering arts programming in alternative schools
- Expand arts instruction with students with disabilities with an increased number of adaptive art teachers and music therapist
