

I'm doing just fine
And I will be doing just fine
Until you die
I am more than
The people who've hurt me
I am more than
You could ever be
And I will carry on
Without you all
Because I am the
Number one priority
Black nail polish and all,
I've always been ready
To let you go
After what has happened to me
You are all just a blip
In my agonizing timeline
