

Perdita Finn - Making Miracles With the Beloved Dead 2025

Module 1: September 9, 2025

Call in Sacred Allies to Midwife Your Miracle

Begin building your personal pantheon of spiritual allies — saints, ancestors, holy beings, and soul companions who want to collaborate with you. You'll explore how individuals were elevated to sainthood, and how ordinary people became venerated not through perfection, but through presence, love, and need.

You'll learn how longing, grief, desire, and even heartbreak can become portals for powerful connection — and how to intentionally call in help from the unseen realms. Through storytelling, ritual, and reflection, you'll initiate a relationship with the specific spirits who are here to midwife something magical into your life. You'll call in a miracle — a dream or healing that will unfold across the course with their support.

In this session, you'll:

- Take part in a guided summoning practice to meet the spirit allies who are already attuned to your soul's call
- Call in a miracle, which you'll nurture throughout the course with your holy team
- Learn how to recognize saints and helpers who are already connected to your lineage or energetic field
- Discover how to create simple yet potent altars and rituals, and summon spells to call in sacred presence

- Work with icons, relics, and ancestral objects to deepen your felt relationship with the unseen

Module 2: September 16, 2025

Enshrine an Ancestor to Awaken Their Miraculous Gifts

Explore how ordinary people on the Other Side can become extraordinary helpers in this life. Through stories of unexpected posthumous saints, you'll be invited to see your own beloved dead in a new light — not as distant memories, but as active collaborators with spiritual gifts to offer.

You'll choose one ancestor to begin beatifying — a sacred process that includes ritual, prayer, oracle-making, and the creation of personal feast days and shrines. You'll learn how to claim your own power to sanctify the relationships that matter most, and to co-create miracles through love that never ends.

In this session, you'll:

- Begin the process of beatifying one of your own ancestors through a creative and devotional practice
- Connect with their unique energy and identify their spiritual specialty — what they're here to help you with
- Design your own rituals of sainthood, including miracle documentation, prayers, and altars
- Start crafting a personalized oracle deck that channels guidance from your chosen ancestor
- Deepen your relationship with the dead as living, loving presences in your daily life

Module 3: September 30, 2025

Channel the Power of Secular Saints to Energize Your Spiritual Practice

Some figures leave such a mark on the collective imagination that their presence lingers long after they're gone — not just as memories, but as spiritual forces.

You'll explore the phenomenon of “secular saints” — legendary public figures like Harriet Tubman, Princess Diana, Marilyn Monroe, or Elvis — and how they can become powerful allies on your personal path.

You'll learn how to engage with these larger-than-life spirits in a grounded, intentional way that invites sparkle, clarity, and guidance into your everyday rituals. Rather than idolizing or obsessing, you'll develop tools for forming real, working relationships with these cultural ancestors — through mantra, movement, and pilgrimage of the heart.

In this session, you'll:

- Identify and connect with a secular saint whose story and energy align with your personal journey
- Participate in a ritual to summon their presence and explore how they can support you now
- Design a simple, meaningful pilgrimage that doesn't require travel or money — only devotion and imagination
- Create personal mantras and morning practices to strengthen your connection to this guide
- Feed your altar with offerings that call in their essence and nourish the miracle you're tending

Module 4: October 7, 2025

Read the Natural World as an Oracle to Deepen Your Sense of Spiritual Belonging

The saints and the spirits aren't just floating above us — they move through petals, feathers, branches, and winds. Their presence is rooted in the land. You'll explore how the natural world serves as a living, breathing oracle — one that's always in conversation with your soul.

From the bird that shows up at just the right moment to the flower that keeps reappearing in your dreams, you'll begin to recognize how the sacred speaks through ecosystems. You'll learn how traditional, personal, and secular saints often reveal themselves through nature — and how these signs can support and guide your miracle work.

This session is an invitation into deeper intimacy with the Earth, and with the unseen beings moving through it.

In this session, you'll:

- Practice reading your local environment as a personal oracle filled with sacred signs
- Experience a guided connection to the spirit of place and the more-than-human world
- Deepen your sense of belonging through communion with plants, animals, and elements
- Discover which saints or ancestors are reaching for you through natural symbols
- Expand your miracle team by recognizing the sacred allies already surrounding you

Module 5: October 14, 2025

Reclaim Ancient Divine Feminine Lineages to Awaken Sacred Memory

Long before the saints were canonized, the world was filled with many mothers — goddesses of land, sky, river, and root. Their presence still echoes beneath the surface of modern faith. Discover how the cult of the saints emerged from suppressed polytheistic traditions — and how the ancient Great Mothers continue to act as guardians of deep time, earth wisdom, and miraculous unfolding.

You'll be invited to reconnect with these primordial feminine forces, and to hear which of them may be calling to you now. Through meditation, reflection, and ritual, you'll begin dissolving the inherited constraints of monotheism and reclaim a relationship with the Divine that is multiple, embodied, and alive. This is a return to the oldest forms of faith — where miracles are cyclical, emergent, and rooted in trust.

In this session, you'll:

- Engage in a guided meditation to attune to the ancient Mother figures calling to you
- Begin unraveling inherited beliefs shaped by patriarchy and monotheism
- Identify your personal connections to Divine Feminine lineages across cultures
- Explore ancient vs. modern views of miracles — and how to trust your own rhythms
- Develop rituals that strengthen your relationship with the Mothers and divine timing

Module 6: October 21, 2025

Move in Rhythm With the Sacred to Deepen Connection With the Unseen

Prayer isn't a transaction — it's a relationship. A rhythm. A dance between worlds. You'll reimagine prayer not as something you do to the Divine, but with the Divine — a living, breathing rhythm of connection with your miracle team on the Other Side.

Drawing on ancient practices, seasonal rites, and the wisdom of mystics like Catherine of Siena, you'll explore how movement, repetition, and ritual create intimacy with the unseen. You'll identify the smaller prayers and spirit collaborators that support your larger miracle, and reawaken the cyclical nature of devotion — where presence, surrender, and celebration are all part of the flow. Whether through gesture, silence, or sway, you'll begin to sense what it means to dance with the dead.

In this session, you'll:

- Be guided through a rhythmic prayer practice that invites movement into your communion with the sacred
- Develop daily rituals that strengthen your relationship with saints, ancestors, and allies
- Map out the smaller prayers and soul companions that scaffold your miracle work
- Reclaim seasonal revels and ancient rites that once summoned the sacred into everyday life
- Attune to the sacred cycles of growth, death, and renewal as part of your ongoing prayer journey

Module 7: October 28, 2025

Connect With Timeless Guides to Carry Your Soul's Prayer Across Lifetimes

Some saints don't just show up in a single moment — they walk with us through lifetimes, guiding us in birth, in death, and in the mystery in between. In this final session, you'll meet the sacred beings who stand at the crossroads — the threshold guides, the holy ones who hold the long thread of your soul's journey.

You'll explore the rituals that mark our comings and goings: birth, baptism, dying, death, and rebirth. With their help, you'll begin composing the prayer of your life — a soul-spell that carries your deepest hopes for this world and the next. This is where your miracle opens into something even larger: a legacy of love, devotion, and sacred remembrance that stretches across deep time.

In this session, you'll:

- Create a soul-spell: a personal prayer that weaves your heart's longings into a sacred offering
- Cultivate relationship with a threshold saint or guide who accompanies souls across lifetimes
- Learn mantras, rites, and devotional practices rooted in traditional pilgrimage and passage
- Participate in a collective prayer to the holy helpers — calling for the renewal of the earth
- Sense your place in the great continuum, where the sacred is always remembering you

Every Inch a Saint: A Doctor's Encounter With Miracles, Mystery & the Healing Power of Eileen O'Connor

Video Dialogue With Perdita Finn & Kate Clinch

Meet Australian doctor Kate Clinch, author of the forthcoming Every Inch a Saint, as she shares her extraordinary journey from woman of science to devoted advocate for the beatification of Eileen O'Connor. You'll hear how this radically disabled woman from early 20th-century Sydney became a spiritual force of compassion, founding a nursing order and offering solace to the sick. Kate and Perdita both reveal the personal miracles they've experienced through Eileen's intercession — moments of deep healing and divine presence. If you or someone you love lives with chronic illness, this 31-minute video conversation will remind you that unseen help may already be on the way. You'll come away with a renewed sense of hope, wonder, and reverence for the saints who walk among us.

Plus... you'll receive these bonuses too!

Dancing With the Black Madonna: When the Saints Turn Your Life Upside Down (In the Best Way)

Video Dialogue With Perdita Finn & Greg Casale

Yoga teacher Greg Casale, author of the forthcoming Dancing With the Black Madonna, shares what happens when you invite the saints into your life... and they actually show up. You'll hear how praying to Ma Kali ignited a series of unexpected (and often terrifying) changes that ultimately led Greg closer to his truth. He and Perdita explore how to work with these fierce, loving forces, prepare for the upheaval they might bring, and stay rooted in daily devotion through it all. If you've ever felt the urge to surrender but feared the fallout, this conversation is your permission slip. You'll come away with practical insight — and spiritual fire — for walking a path of sacred disruption.

Bonus

Sneak Preview From Perdita's Upcoming Book, Mothers of Magic: Summoning the Wisdom of Our Ancestors

PDF From Perdita Finn

In this moving bonus, you'll hear Perdita share a personal story about asking her deceased mother for help — and receiving a miracle that rippled across generations. You'll explore what it means to live in the economy of prayer, where asking for practical help becomes a sacred act of faith. You'll discover how your everyday needs can be a portal for deeper connection with your ancestors, and see how the dead don't just respond; they transform, healing relationships in ways you never imagined. If you've ever wondered whether it's "okay" to ask your beloved dead for help, this story will change everything.
