

-About us-

“Epilogue” is a Your Turn To Die zine focused on the series of events of YTTD/キミガシネ, this project will contain spoilers for the entire game & all routes. This includes events before/leading up to the events of the game (and maybe after...?) This zine will be rated 16+ due to the content of the game itself, as such all contributors must be over this age as well.

-Contributor Application guidelines-

APPLICATIONS OPEN UNTIL FEB 15!

Artist: link 3 of your best works and a portfolio of your artwork (eg: artstation, google drive, etc)

Writer: link 3 of your best works and a portfolio of your writing (eg: ao3, tumblr tag, etc). Not all of your examples must be for YTTD, however our writing mod requests that you have at least one example of YTTD in your application so we can get a general understanding of how you write for the characters and setting!

Merch artist: link 3 of your favourite merch examples and a portfolio of your artwork. We greatly recommend having physical photograph of your merch/fan-merch included in your portfolio (this won't affect the outcome of your result, but it is bonus point to help us garner your current experience in merch-making)

*Please make sure that we would be able to access the portfolio you provide! If we are unable to access your portfolio, we will not be able to properly evaluate your application and your application will be null!!

*If you are concerned with content warnings present in your portfolio (eg: body horror, gore, eyestrain) there will be a field to fill out where you can provide warnings ahead of time, do not submit NSFW work.

Generally, we will be focusing on colour, composition, style, creativity, narrative abilities and structure. We do not condone hateful or malicious content. We will not be accepting applicants who have produced this material.

During the application process we will ask applicants to list the top 5 characters you want to create for, list characters you don't want to create for, we want to get as many characters as possible in this zine (all main characters, including dummies and floormasters are the goal!) Applicants may apply for multiple roles, but will only be accepted for one.

Schedule (tentative):

December 8 - January 1	Interest check & Mod Applications
January 15- February 15	Contributor Applications
March 1	Acceptance & Rejection emails sent
Beginning/Mid March	Start Production

Pre-orders open	August 28 (open for about 1 month give or take)

-Q&A-

Will there be YTTS content?

At the moment our thoughts are no YTTS/AU content, depending on the interest check we may change things around to have YTTS content, but it will not be the primary focus. If you are unsure if a concept would be considered an AU please feel free to ask and we will be happy to let you know!! We know this can be a little confusing, as there will be creative interpretation of events (especially in the “prior to the game” category).

UPDATE (05/01/2022): The mods have decided to include some YTTS content (including Jin and Touko) based on the feedback from the Interest Check!

Will there be romantic ships?

There will be no romantic ship content in this project!

Can I stream/post my piece before the zine is released?

You are not allowed to publish your piece before the zine has been out for a while, after a few months you are free to do whatever you'd like with your piece (ie: sell, post, etc) we will let you know when this period passes in our discord!

Do I need to include YTTD content in my application?

YTTD content is not a necessity, but it would be nice to see to help us get an understanding of how you stylize the characters.

What is this zine rated?

“Epilogue” is rated 16+ for mild violence/blood, no heavy gore or violence will be present.

Do/will I need Discord?

Yes. As Discord chat will be our primary method of communication and discussion, contributors will need to have a Discord account.

What about 3-2/ the final chapter?

If the final chapter comes out during production, depending on when it comes out it may or may not be present in the zine, we will just see when/if it comes out by then, but we will be posting updates on our social media if relevant/applicable!

How many contributors will this project have?

As of right now we are thinking between 20-30 contributors (not including guests/mods)

~ 5 writers

~ 5 merch artists

~ 20 Page artists

These numbers are subject to change depending on Interest check feedback & the amount of contributor applications.

How will contributors be compensated?

It is our goal to make sure that all contributors will receive a full bundle of the project (zine+merch) for free. This zine is for profit, if there is an instance in which a contributor cannot receive payment, we will donate their profit to a charity of their choice.

Will you be accepting pitch hitters?

Yes! We will have an option on the contributor application form to let us know if you'd like to be one!

Can I use a collab piece/DTIYS piece in my application?

We would prefer it if you refrain from including pieces of this nature in your application. We would like to see work that is fully original to see your conceptual skills!

I have a question that's not addressed here!

Please ask us over on our Curious Cat and we will answer it to the best of our abilities!

Thankies a million, we hope to hear from you soon~
