

Record your observations and questions about the planet as you investigate the photographs your rover takes.

Observations	Questions for Future Research

After analyzing your images, which 3 photographs are most important for your team to share for future missions to the planet?

Why are these photographs most important? What information do they provide to support future missions?

Photographs of the Planet	Importance How does this help you better understand the terrain of the planet? How does this image support future missions?
Paste photo 1 here
Paste photo 2 here
Paste photo 3 here	