Dear Clairbourn Families,

Attached is a list of charities for you to consider supporting as we approach the holiday season. Clairbourn students are Scholars and Leaders with Heart, so let's show some HEART by helping those less fortunate than we are.

If you choose to support one of the attached charities, please try to mention Clairbourn in your donations or purchases. Support is completely voluntary, but much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Heather E. Jones, Esq.

Hillsides

<https://www.hillsides.org/>

“We are a premier provider dedicated to healing children and young adults, strengthening families, and transforming communities through quality comprehensive services and advocacy....Hillsides has five core programs that offer a depth and breadth of innovative services for at-risk children and their families.”

Please visit the website above to learn about how to donate to or volunteer with Hillsides.

Door of Hope

<https://doorofhope.us/>

Clairbourn has a long history of supporting Door of Hope, whose mission is to support families experiencing homelessness and to help them transition to permanent housing. Please visit Door of Hope’s website to learn about how you can support the families they serve, including purchasing items from an Amazon Wish List, making in-kind donations, and volunteering.

Pasadena Altadena Community Endowment Fund (“PACEF”)

www.pasadenacf.org

The Pasadena Community Foundation is a tax-exempt public charity that works with “individuals, families, and organizations to establish philanthropic funds, create and build endowment funds, and distribute charitable gifts to nonprofit organizations in Pasadena and across the country.” The Foundation works with Pasadena-area non-profits to provide grants in six areas of impact, including youth and education and arts and culture.

Friends in Deed

<https://friendsindeedpas.org/>

Friends in Deed “is an interfaith organization that provides supportive services to meet basic human needs, so our homeless and at-risk neighbors can rebuild their lives.”
