Legal Resources

Public Law Center - <https://www.publiclawcenter.org/>

The Public Law Center (PLC), Orange County's nonprofit pro bono law firm, is committed to providing access to justice for low-income residents. Through volunteers and staff, the Public Law Center provides free civil legal services, including counseling, individual representation, community education, and strategic litigation and advocacy to challenge societal injustices.

The Hub for Integration, Reentry & Employment - <https://www.hireoc.org/>

H.I.R.E. is the only organization in Orange County that operates to coordinate the individual needs of clients and reduce barriers to employment, which can be wide-ranging, as they reenter their communities. With an extensive network of service providers, employers, and government agencies, H.I.R.E. functions as a collaborative and serves as a focal point for providing both direct services, as well as a hub for other organizations. Additionally, H.I.R.E. is the only organization in the county that provides services with no age or conviction restrictions. These clients typically have the most difficulties in finding and obtaining employment or accessing services.
