Cost Factors

The cost of cannabis products can vary based on several important considerations. Product category is one of the primary factors affecting pricing, as flower, edibles, vapes, cannabis oils, CBD oil, concentrates, and pre-rolled joints often have different price structures. Premium products may be priced differently due to cultivation practices, production methods, and overall quality standards.

Potency can also influence pricing. Products containing higher THC or CBD concentrations may carry different price points depending on formulation and intended use. Brand reputation often contributes to cost as well, with established producers and specialty products sometimes commanding higher prices.

Quantity purchased can affect overall value, as larger purchases may reduce the cost per unit. Customers can also inquire about available promotions, featured products, and current offers that may help maximize value while maintaining access to quality cannabis products.

Is Cannabis Legal in Mississauga?

Yes. Recreational cannabis is legal in Ontario for adults who meet the legal age requirement of 19 years or older. Licensed retailers such as The Woods Cannabis operate under provincial regulations governing product sales, labeling, packaging, and age verification.

Customers must provide valid government-issued identification before purchasing cannabis products and comply with all applicable Ontario cannabis laws.
