

Alustath Journal for Human and Social Sciences

Author's Contributions Statement

The contribution of each author in the submitted manuscript (MS) to the “Alustath Journal for Human and Social Sciences” should be specified in the MS itself.

The author(s) use(s) their initials to explain his/her contribution (Ahmed collected the sample and analyzed all variables,. etc.), each authorship is expected to make substantial contribution to part of the MS from the conception of research to submitting the MS. All authors read the manuscript carefully and approve the final version of their MS.

Alustath Journal for Human and Social Sciences

Authorship Contribution Statement

Title of manuscript:

The authorship of the title above certifies that they have participated in different roles as follows:

(Please, kindly indicate the contribution, and the author (s) listed in the MS must have played at least one of the following roles:

Conception, design, acquisition of data, analysis, interpretation, drafting the MS, revision and proofreading

Author name

role

signature

(Author name)

(Author name)