

Edward W. Belsky Jr.

Location - West-A: R3, C48

Pvt. Edward W. Belsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Belsky, 224 High street, left this morning for Fort Sheridan, Ill., where he will be reassigned, after spending a nine-day furlough with his parents, relatives and friends. Private Belsky recently completed two terms under the army specialized reserve program at the University of Wisconsin and was in the upper 10th per cent of his class, earning two blue star awards. During his second term he held the post of cadet company commander of Company D.

Cadet Edward Belsky Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Belsky, 224 High street, is now enrolled with the army selective training reserve at the University of Wisconsin, where he is receiving training under the army A-12 program. Cadet Belsky graduated with high honors with the January class of 1944 from Oshkosh High school, where he was active in football.