Appearance

Danny is a 6'9 dullahan with dyed blonde hair and sky blue eyes. He has a muscular frame and works his stomach area to have a six pack for looks. Danny has an eyebrow piercing on his left side and a ball piercing on his tongue. He also has a jacob's ladder on his penis. He has a tribal tattoo on his right shoulder to match his brother's. Danny often wears clothes that are either whole red in coloring or impractical Jessica Rabbit dresses, his stilettos are always sharpened to a point.

Personality

Danny is a very happy person who is always willing to go with the flow. Much different from his younger brother. He adores working as his brothers second in command even with the workload because he gets to flamboyantly flirt with everyone around him. He is the type of person to never call you by your name unless it's important; always using a multitude of endearments instead.

Backstory

Danny was cursed to be a dullahan alongside his younger brother after they had killed someone they should not have as young mercenaries. After the initial confusion of being unable to die from a few suicide attempts because of his sexuality, he embraced who he was. He has followed his younger brother into every battle together, from World War I to World War II and even to this quaint yet dangerous village full of monsters. He was actually relieved when his brother was upgraded to Lord status as it finally gave him somewhere to rest and relax. While he still enjoys the battle and every day sparring with his brother. He has been enjoying having the opportunity to explore his sexuality more and his interests in high fashion.
