

Senior Research Fellowship: Application form for sponsorship by the Zoology Department

Your details
Name
Gender
Ethnicity
Current Position and Institution
Year awarded PhD
Any other positions held since PhD, where and how the post was funded
Senior Research Fellowships, for which you are eligible and wish to be considered (delete as appropriate)	• NERC IRF (deadline Autumn summer 2027) • Royal Society University Research Fellowship (deadline Autumn 2027) • Royal Society University Dorothy Hodgkin Research Fellowship (deadline Autumn 2027) • ERC StG / CoG • Wellcome Career Development Fellowship (deadlines from April 2027) • Other (please specify)

Strategic fit and rationale

Explain why you wish to hold a Senior Research Fellowship in the Department. Tell us how your research group is a good strategic fit for the Department of Zoology and the wider university environment - including in the longer-term (i.e. 10+years from now).
(300 words max):

Outline the core facilities and any specialist equipment you will need to do your research
(300 words max)
(e.g. molecular lab, CT room, microscopy needs etc)

Narrative CV (in R4R format used by UKRI, Royal Society etc)

Explain how you have contributed to the generation of new ideas, tools, methods or knowledge (including details of any funding you have previously awarded)
(300 words max):

Explain how you have contributed to the development of others and maintained effective working relationships (150 words max)

Explain how you have contributed to the wider research community (150 words max)

Explain how you have contributed to broader audiences and towards wider societal benefit (150 words max)

Brief outline of research proposal (500 words max)Supporting information to be attached (checklist)

Full Publications list
Details of 2 referees we can contact if you are shortlisted

Please complete and return to admin@zoo.cam.ac.uk by 17:00 GMT on 10 November 2026.