Melbourne Conveyancing is conducted at no cost to clients.

When you engage a conveyancer to handle your property purchase or sale, you will be charged a fee. The amount of this fee depends on a number of factors including the value of your home and how much work is involved in completing the transaction. The average fee is between $2,000 and $5,000.

However with us at Home Conveyancing Australia, we offer no cost conveyancing services to clients who are buying or selling property in Melbourne! Our job is simply to help people navigate through the legal process associated with purchasing or selling property. Because we don't have any additional fees associated with our service, there's no hidden costs that could catch you off guard later on down the line like other companies may try and do when trying to make money from unsuspecting customers who are looking for somewhere cheap but professional-quality legal services.

No cost conveyancing quote.

A conveyancing quote is a price estimate provided by a conveyancer or lawyer that gives you an approximate idea of what your property transfer will cost. As you probably know, property prices have been skyrocketing in recent years and this has made it harder than ever to purchase a house without needing to secure funding from the bank. This means that if you're looking for a mortgage-free lifestyle, there's no way around paying out large sums of money before your new home is yours. Luckily, now there's also no need to pay these fees up front! We offer our clients a free quote on all our services so that no matter what their circumstances are they can still afford our services without having to be concerned with how much they're going to cost them upfront (and then being stuck with those costs when they inevitably go over budget).

We do not charge additional fees for using our services.

When it comes to conveyancing, the most important thing is to get the best deal for your money. We make this happen by charging no additional fees for using our services and providing superb value for money.

No hidden costs.

As you can see, there are many ways in which we can help you. The only thing that you need to do is make sure that you have a spare $0 to pay for your conveyancing costs. And if it's any help, I'm sure that when our clients go through the process of owning Melbourne property for free, they don't regret it one bit!

We will cover all of the costs associated with your settlement, including transfer duty and related government charges.

Transfer duty is a tax on property transfers. It is payable by the seller, but can be passed on to the buyer (in which case it becomes an additional cost). The dollar amount of transfer duty depends on a range of factors such as the value of your property or land and whether or not you are making any alterations to it when you buy or sell.

Transfer duty is paid by the seller and/or lender in certain circumstances:

- If your property sale price is $600,000 or less: - Transfer Duty = $8,800 (10%)* If your property sale price is between $600,001 and $750,000: - Transfer Duty = 10% + Additional 6% GST * If your property sale price is between $750 001 and 1 800 000: - Transfer Duty = plus 12% (plus 9% GST)
