

My Terms Of Service

Welcome to Nero "Drayke" Eternity, Aka Brice Duclay's TOS

If you plan on commissioning me, please make sure to read the following information carefully. If you still have any questions regarding my TOS after reading this, please Contact me with a note and I'll be happy to answer them.

General information

- By commissioning me it is implied that you have read, understood and agreed to my ToS.
- I have the right to change/update my Terms of Service and commission prices at any time.
- For commission prices and information (including how to get a commission slot) please check the following links:

- Approximate delivery time is between a few hours and 2 months, depending on my schedule and complexity of the image (as well as your response time, since I'll be showing WIPs of each stage to you, waiting for your approval before continuing). If you need the image finished by a certain date, be sure to let me know beforehand (also take into account that image series or sets, ref sheets and comics take much longer to make, so the delivery times are increased for those).
- Private commissions are possible, but I charge an extra 25% on the final price for the image (I will not post the image to any of my galleries, art packs, etc...).

- I am comfortable drawing SFW and NSFW themed images, but please refer to the link below to see the specific themes/kinks I am willing or not willing to draw.
If not link yet, or if you're not sure, then just ask

- You can check my main galleries in FA, Twitter or facebook to see more examples of my work, so you can get a good idea of the expected quality of your commission.
- If you want to commission something that will be used for commercial use, please contact me, since the process and prices vary considerably.

Payment

- Payment is expected in full, via Paypal only. Once I have all the information I need, i will send you an estimate. you have to accept it, or ask for modification. When you accept it, then I'll be sending an invoice for the full amount to your email address.
- Partial payment solutions are possible, but Then i will work until a certain point, and I will not finish the picture as long as I am not fully paid.
- an estimate per email can be asked
- Important to know i'm living in France, Europe. so the currency base i use for my prices and calculation are the EURO.
- Make sure you have enough funds to pay for the commission. If you fail to pay for the commission within 2 days after I contacted you and the agreement has been settled, the slot/turn will be taken away and given to someone else.

Commissioner rights

- The commissioner is allowed to repost, and use the image in any non-commercial use, as long as credit for the image is given (you can simply link back to my main gallery in FA).
- The Commissioner is NOT allowed to modify, copy the pictures/position or replace the characters by other or even change colors in any ways
- You are also allowed to print the image for personal, non-profit use. If you need the image in a specific format for this, let me know beforehand .

Fixes and changes:

- You can ask me to change or fix certain aspects of the image during each WIP stage as follows:
- Rough doodle/sketch: Changes in the composition of the image, view angle and pose of the character/s.
- Sketch: large details (number of fingers, ear shape, etc), proportions and facial expressions
- Line Art: all the small/medium details of your character/s (shape of the fingers, eyebrows, nose, etc)
- Flat colors: color palette, patterns, markings and other similar color related details
- Render: final details, textures, fluids, etc
- Small changes will not be charged if done during the appropriate stage (2 times max per stage), larger changes, or changes made after its appropriate stage had already been approved will be charged at the rate of 25€ per hour. the customer will have the obligation to pay during the process or at the end.
- In the same way, If the customer desires a new option, choice, details which were NOT included in first place, he accepts for those modifications to be charged at the rate of 25€ per hour with the obligation to pay during the process or at the end.
- You have the right to change your idea if I have not started working on it. The new idea must still follow any guidelines/conditions I gave when opening for commission slots at that time, and I may charge extra if the complexity of the piece goes higher. (I may also refuse certain new ideas not agreed on prior, like changing a single image commission to an image series).
- You can still change said idea after I started working if you are willing to pay an extra fee to start over, the price for this change will vary on how far I am into the original commission. And again I may charge extra if the complexity of the piece goes higher. (I may also refuse certain new ideas not agreed on prior, like changing a single image commission to an image series).

Refunds:

- They are absolutely no refunds once I start working on your commission. If you think there is a possibility that you might need that money for any other reason, please do NOT commission me

If you wish to remain anonymous when I post the image to my gallery, let me know and I won't mention you in the image description.

Artist rights

- As long as the image was not from a private commission (Check above in "General Information") it's implied that I am allowed to post the image to any of my galleries.
- I have the right to refuse a commission idea if it's something I'm not comfortable drawing (check the link above for the things I will/won't draw). If this happens you can either change your idea or give up your commission slot.
- I have the right to refuse service to anyone. and to say the reasons or not.
- I can also terminate the commission at any point, refunding you after deducting what I feel is rightful payment for the work I have put into the piece till that point (should follow the same rules as refunding whenever you cancel a commission, as seen above in "Commissioner Rights").
