REVISION FORM

By completing the revision table provided in this document, I/we, the author(s) of the article entitled ".....", affirm that I/we have made revisions to the article that coincide with the comments and suggestions provided by the reviewer. I/we implemented changes based on certain feedback but also countered other comments and suggestions with logical and strong arguments.

1. REVISION FOR REVIEWER 1

No	Reviewer's Comments/Suggestions	Corrections from the Author(s)
1	Example: "Ambiguous title, potentially giving rise to various interpretations. Formulate the title briefly and clearly, and adjust the title to the issue being discussed"	Example: We have changed our title from "..." to "..."
2	Example: "This paper needs to provide the gap of study"	Example: "We argue that we have previously provided the gap of study; please see page 2, paragraph 1, lines 3-5."

2. REVISION FOR REVIEWER 2

No	Reviewer's Comments/Suggestions	Corrections from the Author(s)
1	Example: "Research methods are still too general and conceptual. Write in detail and concretely the stages of work that the author has carried out in the research."	Example: We have revised the Method section, especially in data collection (see page 4, par. 2-3) and data analysis (see page 4, par. 4)
2	Example: "Authors must apply the standard and customary Latin-Arabic transliteration system in scientific writing. Use the ALA-LC Romanization system."	Example: "We have altered the Latin-Arabic transliteration and now utilize ALA_LC in all excerpts."
