Approval of Minutes
August meeting minutes were reviewed and voted for approval. Kimberly Triplett motioned to approve; Michelle Chacon seconded. Unanimously approved.

Principal/Admin Report
- Title I engagement events are being tied into PTO events
- Reviewed county budget cuts and changes to staff, i.e. Mr. Bombard is our new PE teacher
- Focusing on early intervention in K-1 students

Treasurer's Report
The treasurers' report was reviewed. Bank balance as of 9/17/25 is $12,808.55. Book balance as of 9/17/25 is $12, 585.31. Sarah Ashby motioned to approve; Amber Maroon seconded. Unanimously approved.

Committee Updates
- Grade Level Parents: Each grade level had parents sign up except 4th grade. Megan will send the sign up to all the teachers to re-send out to parents.
    - Rock Your School- requesting grade level parents to come decorate the hallways in jungle theme; needs to be decorated before 10/1
- Fundraising:
    - Moving tile night to January 2026
    - Nothin' Bundt Cakes- starting to sell 9/24 through 10/6; orders due 10/8. Cakes will be delivered on 10/17 and must be picked up on 10/17 because we cannot store them in the school.
- Hospitality: Joy Saslov has requested PTO provide jungle themed snacks on 10/1 for the teachers to celebrate Rock Your School. Will send out sign-up genius for donations.
- Fall Dance: To piggy-back on Rock Your School, discussed making a 'haunted forest' and reuse the jungle decorations. DJ has been secured and is charging $500; additional $500 for photobooth provided by DJ but discussed reaching out to PIE partners for donations or finding a less expensive photobooth option. Charging $10/student tickets, $5/adult ticket, $15/non-student tickets.
- Spirit Nights: Trying to set up a Kelly's Ice Cream spirit night

New Business/Open Forum:
- Rock: For a 3,000+ pound rock it would cost roughly $700 including delivery.

Adjournment
Meeting was adjourned at 7:11pm by Illie Gromlich.
