

Balancing Act - Part 2

Now, write directions for scenarios similar to the circumstances in the first four questions, but change the amounts each time and then put description of the result that should happen except make an INCORRECT result. Then share those with your classmates. You will be making a puzzle for your classmates to solve.