Vogue Charity Fashion Show 2024/2025 Charity Proposal

The Vogue Charity Fashion Show (VCFS) is an annual performance produced and executed entirely by over 180+ Queen's University students. All proceeds made from ticket sales, fundraising initiatives, and events will go towards a charity of our choosing. This is where you come in! Are you passionate about a specific charity? Do you have a charity that you think VCFS should fundraise for? The VCFS Charity Team would love to hear from you! Proposals can be sent to vcfs.charity@gmail.com by Friday, June 21st at 4:00 p.m. We ask that you please limit responses to 300 words per application question.

If you have any questions, feel free to email us at vcfs.charity@gmail.com

1. What charity do you want Vogue Charity Fashion Show 2024/2025 to fundraise for? Please give a brief description of the charity (i.e. who it supports and why it is important to the community).

2. Please provide any ideas you may have for events within this collaboration or preexisting events that the VCFS team could offer support to from September to early February (outreach, formal, fundraising, awareness etc.).

3. What volunteer opportunities does this organization offer and how could the VCFS team participate in these opportunities? Please also provide a brief description of the volunteer enrollment process for each opportunity (i.e. criminal record check, required forms, specific training, etc.). Please be as specific as possible.

4. What initiatives, programs, etc. do you anticipate the money fundraised by VCFS going towards?

5. Please provide any additional details that you think make this organization stand out.

Thank you again for expressing your interest in the possible collaboration with VCFS. We will be reaching out to you around June 26th or earlier to inform you on the status of your application.
