AMBASSADOR PROMISE

Good induction

We believe that a good induction sets the tone for the entire Ambassador experience - therefore we promise to provide you with the right guidance and information to understand your responsibilities within this role and what the next steps are so that you feel inspired and ready to start your journey with us.

Personal advice and support

We want you to learn and grow within our Ambassador programme and promise to support you with access to the most relevant information and careers advice, provide opportunities to enhance your skills

Flexibility

Although we ask for 18 hrs per year, (equal to 1.5 hour per month) we do understand that occasionally life happens - therefore we promise to offer flexibility and understanding. Our opportunities are optional and you are not obliged to say yes to every opportunity we present but remember that, the more you give, the more you will gain from this experience. We will appreciate you with badges and certificates for every contribution.

Personal development

At NexSchools Youth Ambassador Program, we promise to provide you with adequate training and feedback in support of your contributions, as well as providing opportunities to develop your digital footprint by offering you platform for the published work and teach you skills that can be put into practice. We can offer you short 1:1's, where we can update your progress report and track your development with us.

We will also:

- Provide references where appropriate
- Reimburse any agreed expenses
- Ensure that all volunteers are treated in accordance with our equal opportunities policy
- Seek a fair resolution to any complaints or difficulties you may have while volunteering with us
- In the event of an unresolved problem, offer any opportunity to discuss the issues in accordance with the procedures set out in the Nexschools Youth Ambassador Program Handbook
