

LANCERS

Helpful links for College Recruiting Information

NCAA – National Collegiate Athletic Association

Main Site:

 <https://www.ncaa.org>

Eligibility Center (for Division I & II):

 <https://www.ncaaeligibilitycenter.org>

- Where students register to become eligible for NCAA sports
 - Includes academic standards, timelines, and recruiting calendars
 - Offers a free “Guide for the College-Bound Student-Athlete” PDF
-

NAIA – National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics

Main Site:

 <https://www.naia.org>

Eligibility Center (all athletes must register):

 <https://play.mynaia.org>

- Where student-athletes create profiles for recruitment and eligibility
 - Info on NAIA rules, scholarships, and the NAIA Showcase events
-

NJCAA – National Junior College Athletic Association

Main Site:

 <https://www.njcaa.org>

- Includes links to two-year colleges, scholarship rules, and recruiting guidelines
 - Useful for athletes needing to develop further before transferring to NCAA/NAIA
 - Explore schools by sport and state via the “Member Colleges” map
-

BONUS: Recruiting Education & Tools

CoreCourseGPA

- Helps track NCAA core course GPA and eligibility
- Click “Free new Member Account”
 - Enter School ID and School Code
 - School ID: 233515
 - School Code: 739588055

Next College Student Athlete \(NCSA\)

- Free & paid recruiting services
- Athlete profiles, college match tools, webinars, and recruiting timelines

BeRecruited

- Create a recruiting profile
- Connect with college coaches across divisions

CaptainU

- Recruiting tools + college search for athletes and parents
 - Focuses on helping with emails, video, and timelines
-

Tip for Parents & Athletes:

If your son or daughter plans to play sports in college, please have them see Mr. Younger as a Freshman or Sophomore so that the Guidance Counselors can monitor and ensure compliance with core course requirements.

Bookmark your governing body’s Eligibility Center, and make sure transcripts and test scores are submitted early in junior and senior years!