Height: 5'11" | Fit (gym + sports and other outdoor mischief 4+ times a week)

Languages: English | Spanish (functional/learning) | beginner French (expect charming mistakes)

Lifestyle: Omnivore (flexible) | Looking for life partner | Drinks sometimes | Doesn't smoke | No pets | no kids | open to kids | Location flexible but: Incline Village, NV (and some time in GNV and Stuart, Florida and Atlanta, GA every year with some significant travel coming up as well)

A Quick Current

I'm a man who believes love should feel like a river: deep enough to swim in, playful enough to splash, and steady enough to carry two travelers toward something bigger.

I take care of my body, chase wonder in wild places, and think both a lot and deeply -sometimes while spinning underwater (I coach underwater hockey).

I laugh easily, dream ambitiously, and stay curious about the stories hiding in every stranger.

Former Manatee Genetics Lab Manager (yes, manatees!), Corn Genetics Lab Manager, and occasional bartender of poetic cocktails, now a real-estate fixer and e-foil instructor.

✨ What Moves Me

- Early-morning adventures where the only walls are made of trees, rock, or ocean.
- Laughter that refuses to behave in still places.
- Respectful, soulful, and awe-inspiring conversations that bend time.
- Books stacked by the bed like old friends.
- Watching someone I love succeed and cheering loud enough for the neighbors.

🎯 Goals & Adventures

- FIRE: financial independence, so I can spend more time chasing meaning and helping others.
 - Travel: next stops: Yuba River, Yosemite, Florida, then everywhere curiosity points.
 - Connection: friendships and love that inspire growth, mischief, and shared awe.

💎 My Compass

Kindness with backbone • Growth mindsets • Intelligent curiosity • Humor (the darker and sillier the better) • Humility & self-awareness • Love that stays when the storms arrive • Stories of resilience and rising from the ashes.

❤️ Who I'm Hoping to Find

A fellow sojourner, a friend and lover in one, who has wrestled with both joy and shadow, and still chooses wonder.

Someone intelligent enough to see and be seen.

If you read poetry or simply like getting lost in late-night art conversations, we might already be writing a stanza together.

I'm looking for an equal, not a duplicate: a woman who brings her own flavor of brilliance and is willing to build something only we could create.

☀️ Before You Dive In

I value meaningful, mutual connection.

If most of these resonate, my Connecting Questionnaire helps us both discover if we're a match:

- You're genuinely interested in building connection and chemistry.
- Kindness and respect for individuality.
- Honest and curious communication, even when it's tough.
- Willingness to grow, laugh, and stay loyal where it matters.
- Care for your body and your heart.

If this feels like home, take the plunge: <https://forms.gle/Ezn4xaC6bha5FRyX7>

I will thoughtfully and intentionally read every response and similarly respond to every questionnaire or email you send me (provided you don't indicate otherwise). If you see something in the doc or questionnaire that that made you think we might be a good match please reach out and mention it (email at top, ig: jono.underwater) .

Closing Spark

Life is short, love is long, and laughter is oxygen.

If you can toast to all three, let's see where the waters carry us.
