Market research proposal: FH Technology Ltd

Target Audience:Who am I writing to?

I'm engaging with individuals aged 18-45. This demographic includes students and individuals initiating small businesses such as printing and tax declaration services. They are struggling with past experience of buying bad quality technology accessories (laptops), they want guidance in making the best choice in buying a laptop.

Avatar.

Meet Jake, a dedicated business owner in the printing industry, specializing in selling papers and assisting people with tax declarations. Jake's daily routine revolves around his business, starting at 9 am and extending until 8 pm, with a break for lunch. His income is reliant on the clients he serves each month.

Jake faces a challenge with his desktop computer, experiencing issues and frustrations due to its poor functionality. The computer's limitations hinder his efficiency in providing quality services to his clients. FH Technology Ltd recognizes Jake's need for a reliable solution and is committed to offering him a sustainable, high-quality laptop that will not only address his current challenges but also enhance his ability to serve his clients effectively.

And Sarah, a 20-year-old female full-time college student, manages on a tight monthly allowance and faces financial challenges. Her daily routine includes attending classes, studying, and dealing with the frustration of a malfunctioning laptop with limited functionalities.

Despite these challenges, Sarah demonstrates resilience, maintains a positive outlook, and aspires to excel academically. FH Technology Ltd is introduced as a solution to her laptop issues, providing not only a reliable device but also exceptional customer service to support her academic journey.

Roadblocks, Solutions, Products.

Jake and Sarah, let's unravel the mystery behind the challenges you've faced in acquiring high-quality laptops that embody elegance, cost-saving features, and cutting-edge technology. The roadblock wasn't in your desire for top-tier devices but rather in the choices you've made.

The places you've ventured into, with their bad reputation and poorly maintained processes, have left you frustrated. Customer services lacking in follow-up and understanding of your immediate needs have compounded the problem. It's time for a change, and FH Technology Ltd is the solution you've been searching for.

When you choose FH Technology Ltd for your laptops, the outcome is a seamless experience – easier, faster, and with fewer sacrifices. Our laptops are not just devices; they are a reflection of your commitment to excellence. Picture a scenario where mistakes are minimized, costs are optimized, and your respect in both business and school environments skyrockets.

FH Technology Ltd offers more than just laptops; we provide a comprehensive solution to elevate your computing experience. It's time to leave behind the frustrations and embark on a journey with us, where innovation meets reliability, and your satisfaction is our top priority. Take the leap, and discover a world where your technology aligns with your ambitions.

Where are they at right now?

- They are desperate about the choice they make in purchasing them, and the fear of trusting any other company to buy to.
- They have tried everything, google search, Instagram recommendations, but it doesn't fit their needs.
- The key desire is to purchase sleek, slim laptops with ample storage, extended battery life, and impeccable performance.
- They are aware of the solution but they are still comparing shop after shop from the past experience.

Where do I want them to go?

- Click the link to my client's sales page on their website, where they will find impeccable performance technology accessories.
- Where they might also come in person to my client shop, to see themselves.
- When they come in person, we will continue to use the PAS framework.

What are the steps I need to take them through?

- Grab their attention with a headline which pulls them to read more. (an email and Instagram post)
- Tap into the major pain of missing crucial assignment deadlines, missing customers due to your accessories not working that day and the pain to be a shame because you can not even mention that to your peers and competitors.
- Create a scenario for them when they will be able to submit assignments on time and satisfy their customers needs which builds a good reputation.
- To solve all these problems you have, click on the link in my bio where your future experience meets convenience and redefines.

- I am not sure if using two avatars on the same post could have a high impact as using one avatar.
- But these avatars have the same pain/desire not to/to achieve their tasks even though it is on a different level.
- My client has 1k followers on Instagram, I am trying to get them to click the link, which takes them to his website where I am trying to use newsletter pop-up notification, and be sending them daily new products and discount alerts.
