Kevin Flanagan - Chalfont Borough Council

I'm running for Chalfont Borough Council because I believe in practical, community-focused leadership. For years, I've been working behind the scenes to help make Chalfont a great place to live—whether as the Judge of Elections and poll worker before that, a member of the Zoning Hearing Board, or now on the Planning Commission. I've seen firsthand how local decisions shape our borough, and I want to ensure we continue growing responsibly, transparently, and with our residents in mind.

My approach isn't about party politics or pushing an agenda. It's about common sense and collaboration. When I served on the Zoning Hearing Board, I listened, weighed the facts, and made decisions that kept Chalfont's character intact while allowing for smart development. That's exactly the balanced, thoughtful approach I'll bring to Borough Council—ensuring our infrastructure, open space/parks, and local businesses get the attention they deserve while keeping Chalfont's small-town charm alive.

Beyond my public service, I'm also committed to helping our neighbors directly. Since 2020, I've been volunteering at the New Britain Food Pantry, where I've seen the power of a community that looks out for one another. I'm also a Lasagna Chef for the Lasagna Love organization, spreading kindness into the community by preparing and delivering a fresh and homemade lasagna to local families in need. I believe local government should work the same way—putting people first, being transparent, and ensuring every resident is valued and heard. Chalfont has been my home for almost 20 years. My husband and I are homeowners and are actively committed to serving the community. I love this town, and I want to see it thrive for everyone—families, seniors, small business owners, and new and lifelong residents alike. If you're looking for a representative who listens, works hard, and keeps politics out of local government, I'd be honored to have your vote for Chalfont Borough Council. Let's keep moving forward—together.
