

TAILORED PSYCHIATRIC WELLNESS

Patient Rights and Responsibilities

You have the following rights as a patient:

- The right to be informed about the care you will receive.
- The right to get information about your care in your language.
- The right to make decisions about your care, including refusing care.
- The right to know the names of the caregivers who treat you.
- The right to safe care.
- The right to have your problem treated.
- The right to know when something goes wrong with your care.
- The right to get an up-to-date list of all of your medications.
- The right to be listened to.
- The right to be treated with courtesy and respect.
- The right to determine whom you will grant access to your personal health information.
- The right to revoke the release of your personal health information at any time.

You have the following responsibilities as a patient:

- The responsibility is to provide accurate and complete information as needed for your treatment.
- The responsibility to update any changes in personal information.
- The responsibility to tell your provider whether you understand the treatment plan.
- The responsibility to actively participate in your treatment.
- The responsibility is to inform the provider when you are unwilling and/or unable to comply with your treatment plan.
- The responsibility for your actions should you refuse to comply with treatment plan recommendations
- The responsibility is to follow rules, regulations, and policies of Tailored Psychiatric Wellness to maintain a safe environment.
- The responsibility to respect the rights of others
- The responsibility to respect the confidentiality of others.
- The responsibility of attending your appointments, and that non-compliance may lead to your discharge from Tailored Psychiatric Wellness.

TAILORED PSYCHIATRIC
WELLNESS