

We finished a book!

What might we talk about?

|   |   |   |   |
|---|---|---|---|
| Did you like or dislike this book? Why?   | Does this book remind you of another book you've read? How?   | Who's your favorite character and why?  | If you could meet one of the characters right now, what would you say to them?  |
| What parts of the story were tricky for you, or a part you still don't understand?  | What questions do you have for the author?  | What was your favorite part?  | What did this book remind you of in your own life?  |
| Why do you think the author chose that title?   | What snapwords can you find in these books? Can you write them?   | Can you read this book like someone sad? Can you read it like someone excited? What would it sound like if a monster read it? | Pick a word. How do you know it is that word? Can you prove that it's that word in 3 ways? 4 ways? 5?                 |
| Play Guess the Covered Word . Use a piece of paper and cover the word on a page that matches the picture. Have someone at home guess all the possibilities. Slowly show them the word. Repeat. | If there is a pattern in the book, can you write your own book using that pattern.For instance, if the book says, "The dad is asleep. The mom is asleep." You could write your own book using "The dog is asleep. The cat is asleep." | Draw a picture and/or write a new ending for the book. How might it go?   | What kinds of characters did the author create? Are they different for one another? Are they different than you? How? |
